

grain for which the receipt is issued, and that the grain of such owner or consignee is stored separately from the grain of any other owner or consignee. The warehouseman shall, on presentation and surrender of the warehouse receipt bearing the proper endorsement of the person to whom it was issued, deliver to the person surrendering the receipt such amounts of the same grain as may be demanded and of the same grade as called for by receipt. The warehouseman, at the request of the owner or consignee, shall clean, dry, mix or otherwise improve the condition or value of such grain, and it shall be delivered separately from the grain of any other owner or consignee upon the order of the owner or consignee, in accordance with the terms of the warehouse receipt issued therefor and endorsed by such owner or consignee;

Provided, that such special bin receipt, at the request of the owner or consignee, may have printed or stamped thereon the words 'non-negotiable' and the delivery of the identical grain described therein shall be a sufficient delivery and satisfaction of such receipt."

Sec. 3. This Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 17, 1939.

CHAPTER 286—S. F. No. 754

An act relating to salaries of judges of probate in certain counties, amending Chapter 70, Laws of 1937.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Salary of Judge of Probate in certain counties.—That Section 9 of Chapter 70, Laws of 1937, be amended so as to read as follows:

"Section 9. The judge of probate of any such county shall receive compensation for his services in the sum of $1080.00 per annum and, in addition to the above sum all fees collected by him."

Approved April 17, 1939.

CHAPTER 287—S. F. No. 800

An act to authorize the board of supervisors of certain towns to construct sewers and sewage disposal plants; to pay therefor from the general revenue funds of such towns or in case such funds are insufficient, to issue and sell bonds for that purpose.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Section 1. Towns may construct sewers and sewage disposal plants.—The board of supervisors of all towns in the state of Minnesota having a population of more than 3000 inhabitants exclusive of incorporated villages or cities therein and an assessed valuation of taxable property exclusive of moneys and credits of more than $10,000,000, shall have the power to erect, construct, maintain and operate a sewage disposal plant, and to lay and construct within the platted area thereof such sewers leading to said plant and such other equipment incidental and necessary to the operation thereof as such board deems necessary and advisable.

Sec. 2. Payment of cost—Bonds—Interest.—The cost of such erection, construction, maintenance and operation may be paid from the general revenue funds of such towns, and in case such funds are insufficient for that purpose, said boards of supervisors are hereby authorized and empowered for the purposes hereinbefore designated, to issue the negotiable bonds of such towns to the amount authorized by such boards; said bonds to be made in such denominations and payable in such places and at such times, not exceeding 30 years from the date thereof, as may be deemed best. Said bonds shall mature serially and bear interest at a rate of not to exceed five per cent per annum payable semi-annually. No such bonds shall be sold for less than the par value thereof and accrued interest thereon.

Provided also that such bonds shall be issued, negotiated and sold in accordance with the provisions of Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 1943.

Sec. 3. Tax levy to retire bonds.—The full faith and credit of any such towns shall at all times be pledged for the payment of any bonds issued under this act and for the payment of the current interest thereon, and said board of supervisors of such town shall each year include in the tax levy a sufficient amount for the payment of such interest as it accrues, and for the accumulation of a sinking fund for the redemption of such bonds at their maturity.

Sec. 4. Form of bonds.—All bonds issued under the authority of this act shall be sealed with the seal of the town issuing the same and signed by the chairman and clerk thereof, except that the signatures to the coupons attached to such bonds, if any, may be lithographed thereon. The sale of such bonds shall be in such manner and in such proportions of the whole amount authorized by this act and at such times as may be determined by said board of supervisors of such town.

Sec. 5. Proceedings to be used for purposes enumerated.—The proceeds of any and all bonds issued and sold under the authority of this act shall be used for the purposes hereinbefore enumerated.

Sec. 6. Powers additional.—The powers granted by this act are in addition to all existing powers of such towns.

Approved April 17, 1939.

CHAPTER 288—S. F. No. 912

An act to amend Mason's Minnesota Statutes 1927, Section 1442-15, as amended by Laws of 1933, Chapter 328, Section 5, as amended by Special Session Laws of 1935-36, Chapter 20, and as further amended by Laws of 1937, Chapter 171, relating to the payment of retirement allowances to employees of cities of the first class in the State.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Classification of employees.—Mason's Minnesota Statutes 1927, Section 1442-15, as amended by Laws of 1933, Chapter 328, Section 5, as amended by Special Session Laws of 1935-36, Chapter 20, and as further amended by Laws of 1937, Chapter 171, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"1442-15. Employees of the city shall be divided into a contributing class, a non-contributing class and an exempt class.

The contributing class shall consist of all employees not included in either of the other two classes, and shall be subdivided into present incumbents, employees in the service of the city at the date this act becomes effective therein, who elect to become contributors to and prospective beneficiaries of the fund created by this act, and future entrants, employees who enter the service of the city subsequent to the date this act becomes effective therein.
