CHAPTER 331—H. F. No. 1363

An act authorizing the creation of an interim committee to investigate all problems of education in Minnesota, to make such recommendations as the facts may warrant, and providing for an appropriation for such purposes.

WHEREAS, the changing social, industrial and economic conditions and the modern communication and transportation developments have greatly changed the educational needs of the state; and

WHEREAS, the cost of education, which has been steadily increasing, demands a thorough study with the aim of co-ordinating said costs with taxation; and

WHEREAS, the problems of education in Minnesota are not sectional but involve the entire state and must rest in their solution upon facts and analyses covering the entire state; now therefore

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Educational interim committee established.—There is hereby created and established an interim committee on education to study the educational system of the state and problems relating thereto, which committee shall consist of three representatives to be appointed by the speaker of the House of Representatives, three senators to be appointed by the committee on committees of the Senate, and one member to be appointed by the governor of the State of Minnesota.

It shall be the duty of the interim committee to carry on such studies and investigations as it shall deem proper pertaining to the educational needs of the people of Minnesota; to assemble information relative to the educational system of the state including all types and levels of educational institutions and agencies; to assemble information relative to the educational, financial, taxation and legal problems involved in the program of public education including nursery
