~~An act validating the publication of the delinquent real estate tax list in certain cases.~~

~~Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :~~

~~Section 1. Publication of delinquent tax list validated.~~

~~In any case where the publication of the annual notice and list of delinquent real estate taxes was regularly made as provided by law at any time before the passage of this act, except that in the second issue of ~~such~~ ^{return} publication there was inserted immediately after the headline "Delinquent Tax List", and preceding the notice and list, the following: "(Published as news only.)", ~~such~~ ^{sub} publication is hereby legalized and made valid; provided, that this shall not affect any action pending at the time of the passage of this ~~act~~ ^{section}.~~

~~Approved April 21, 1939.~~

CHAPTER 371—H. F. No. 1617

An act to assign the national guard armory located in the Village of Pine River to the Village of Pine River and relieving the Adjutant General from responsibility in connection therewith.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Section 1. National Guard armory transferred to village of Pine River.—The National Guard Armory located in the village of Pine River, Cass county, Minnesota, is hereby transferred and assigned to the village of Pine River for the uses of such village, and the persons responsible therefor are hereby authorized and directed to execute the necessary instrument to convey said National Guard Armory to the village of Pine River; and the adjutant general is relieved from further responsibility in connection therewith; subject, however, to the right of the government to use said armory in case of need for military purposes.

Approved April 21, 1939.

CHAPTER 372—H. F. No. 1620

An act relating to investment of state funds.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Investment of state funds by state investment board.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, but subject to any controlling provisions of the state constitution, the state board of investment, or its successor in authority, is hereby authorized to invest any state funds subject to investment under its control in any bonds or certificates of indebtedness, bearing interest at a rate not less than one and one-half per cent per annum, issued by the state or by any authorized state agency, but not including counties, municipalities, school districts, or other political subdivisions. The provisions of this section shall not limit the authority of the board or its successor under any other law, but shall be supplementary thereto.

CHAPTER 373—H. F. No. 1622

An act authorizing the state treasurer to temporarily borrow from other public funds to supply deficiencies in the revenue fund, amending the 1938 Supplement to Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 88.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. State Treasurer may borrow from other funds.—That the 1938 Supplement to Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 88, is hereby amended to read as follows:

"88. For the purpose of supplying deficiencies in the revenue fund, the treasurer may temporarily borrow from other public funds sums not exceeding in the aggregate nine million dollars in any year; provided that no fund shall be so impaired thereby that all proper demands thereon cannot be met."

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 21, 1939.
