

ing to the last federal census and having an assessed valuation, exclusive of moneys and credits, of not less than nine million nor more than eleven million dollars, now having tract indexes of the records in the Office of the Register of Deeds, the county board is hereby authorized to have such tract indexes transcribed, compared with the original records and checked back whenever the necessity therefor appears.

Sec. 2. Register of deeds to supervise work.—The work provided for in Section 1 of this act shall be performed by the Register of Deeds of the county or under his supervision. The Register of Deeds or other person performing said work shall receive as compensation therefor such sum as may be fixed by the Board of County Commissioners not exceeding five cents per line, compared with the original records and checked back.

Sec. 3. This act shall take effect and be in full force from and after passage.

Approved March 28, 1941.

CHAPTER 107—S. F. No. 705

An act to establish February 15th as "Susan B. Anthony Day."

WHEREAS, the 15th day of February, 1820, is the day in American history of the birth of Susan B. Anthony, and

WHEREAS, during her span of adult life she was a teacher and leader for righteous and noble endeavor in our country, and courageously fought for equal rights for American women and woman suffrage, and by her high and noble efforts she has been recognized as one of the outstanding liberators of American women;

NOW, THEREFORE,

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Susan B. Anthony Day established.—That the 15th day of February of each year is hereby designated as "Susan B. Anthony Day," and whenever it does not occur on a school day the first preceding school day shall be observed in all public schools as "Susan B. Anthony Day." On such day, the United States flag shall be appropriately displayed on all public buildings, schools or public grounds. Adequate time shall be devoted at all public schools on that day by appropriate exercises to commemorate the life history, ideals and work of Susan B. Anthony.

Approved March 29, 1941.

CHAPTER 108—H. F. No. 791

An act providing for the reinstatement of agreements for repurchase of tax-forfeited land under extra session laws 1937, Chapter 88.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Section 1. Agreements for repurchase of tax forfeited lands may be re-instated.—Any agreement for repurchase of tax-forfeited land under Extra Session Laws 1937, Chapter 88, which has been terminated for default may be reinstated as herein provided upon petition of the purchaser under the agreement, his heirs or representatives, provided the default was due to oversight or error on the part of the purchaser or someone acting for him or of some official charged with the duty of administering the tax laws, and provided the land has not been resold. The petition shall state the grounds upon which reinstatement is prayed for, shall be verified, and shall be filed with the county auditor not later than December 31, 1941. The petitioner shall deposit therewith an amount sufficient to pay all delinquent installments due under the agreement, with interest, and all delinquent taxes, penalties, interest, and costs required to be paid under the agreement together with an amount equal to the taxes and assessments that would have been levied and payable but for the termination of such repurchase agreement; such taxes shall be computed by the county auditor as in the case of omitted taxes that would have been assessed between the date of the termination of such agreement and the petition for reinstatement thereof. No proceedings for the resale of the land involved shall be suspended or otherwise affected by the filing or pendency of any such petition.

Sec. 2. County Board to act on petition.—The county auditor shall present the petition to the county board at its next meeting; provided, that no petition shall be presented or acted upon after January 31, 1942. The board shall consider the