

in the state treasury. When so deposited, one of said lists shall be delivered to the state treasurer and another to the state auditor and the commissioner of banks shall retain in his office such records and proofs concerning said claims as he may have, which shall thereafter remain on file in his office. The treasurer shall execute upon the list retained by the commissioner of banks a receipt for such money, which shall operate as a full discharge of the commissioner of banks on account of such claims. At any time within six years after such receipt, but not afterward, the claimant may apply to the commissioner of banks for the amount so deposited for his benefit, and upon proof satisfactory to the governor, the attorney general and the commissioner of banks, or to a majority of them, they shall give an order to the auditor to issue his warrant upon the treasurer for such amount, and such warrant shall thereupon be issued. If no such claim be presented within six years the commissioner of banks shall so note upon his copy of said list and certify the fact to the auditor and treasurer who shall make like entries upon the corresponding lists in their hands; and all further claims to said money shall be barred. Provided, however, that the state treasurer shall pay to the commissioner of banks not to exceed 50 per cent of the amount so turned over to the state treasurer by the commissioner of banks to be used to partially defray expenses in connection with the liquidation of closed banks, in such amounts and at such times as the commissioner of banks shall request.
