

vested with jurisdiction to prevent and restrain violation of this act. Any person damaged or who is threatened with loss, damage or injury by reason of a violation of this act shall be entitled to sue for and have injunctive relief in any court of competent jurisdiction against any damage or threatened loss or injury by reason of a violation of this act and for the amount of the actual damages to him, if any. In order to obtain such injunctive relief, it shall not be necessary to allege or prove that an adequate remedy at law does not exist.

Sec. 9. Application of act.—Nothing in this act shall be deemed to prohibit the sale by an employer to his employes of his own products or property at any price.

Sec. 10. Provisions severable.—The provisions of this act are hereby declared to be severable. If one provision hereof shall be found by the decision of a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such decision shall not affect the validity of the other provisions of this act.

CHAPTER 145—H. F. No. 198.

An act authorizing any county having indebtedness in excess of ten per cent of the assessed valuation of property in such county, in which the bonds of the county have been issued to obtain money for the construction of highways, and are outstanding, to expend moneys received from the road and bridge fund in discharge of such bonds.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. County may pay road and bridge bonds from moneys obtained from state for highway purposes.—In any county which has a total outstanding indebtedness in excess of ten per cent of the assessed valuation of the property in such county where the bonds of the county have been issued to obtain money for the construction of highways and are outstanding, the county may expend moneys received from the state road and bridge fund in discharge of such bonds.
