CHAPTER 17—H. F. No. 236

An act authorizing the renewal of the period of corporate existence of domestic insurance companies or corporations having no capital stock, and legalizing acts and contracts of such corporations made or done and performed subsequent to the expiration of the original period of existence of such corporations.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. The corporate existence of certain domestic insurance companies renewed.—That any domestic insurance company or corporation having no capital stock, heretofore organized and existing under the laws of this state, whose period of duration has expired less than two years prior to the passage of this Act and the same has not been renewed and such corporation has continued to transact its business, may renew its corporate existence from the date of such expiration for any period permitted by the laws of this state, by the adoption of a resolution to that effect by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members present in person or by proxy at a regular meeting of such members, or at any special meeting called for that expressly stated purpose, and by causing such resolution to be embraced in a certificate duly executed by its president and its secretary, or other presiding and recording officers, under its corporate seal, and approved, filed, and recorded and published in the manner prescribed by law for the execution, approval, filing, recording and publishing of an original certificate of incorporation or articles of association.

Sec. 2. Proceedings to begin—when.—Such proceedings to obtain such extension shall be taken within one year after the passage of this act.

Sec. 3. Proceedings shall relate back.—When such proceedings are taken within such period of time, such proceedings shall relate back to the date of the expiration of such original corporate period, as fixed by its articles of incorporation or by statutory limitation, and when such period is extended as provided by this Act, any and all corporate acts and contracts done and performed, made and entered into after the expiration of such original period, shall be and each is hereby declared to be legal and valid.

Sec. 4. Application of act.—This Act shall not apply to any corporation, the charter of which has been declared forfeited by the final judgment of any court of competent jurisdiction of this state, or to any corporation as to which there is pending any action or proceeding in any of the courts of this state for the forfeiture of its charter, nor shall this Act affect any action or proceeding now pending in any of the courts of this state in relation to any corporation described in Section 1 of this Act.

Approved Feb. 5, 1943.
