

CHAPTER 176—S. F. No. 632.

An act relating to wild animals and the taking of deer.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Deer may be taken with bow and arrow.—Deer may be taken in such areas of the state as may be prescribed by the commissioner of conservation with the use of a bow and arrow only from October 16 to November 1 between one-half hour before sunrise and sunset.

Sec. 2. Must have big game hunting license.—No person shall hunt or pursue deer with a bow and arrow without first having obtained the regular big game hunting license. All requirements with respect to the use of seals and tags imposed by law for the hunting and possession of deer shall be complied with in respect to deer taken by bow and arrow. Provided, a non-resident bow and arrow deer hunting license with seal shall be issued for a fee of $10.25.

Sec. 3. Must not carry fire arms.—No person shall have in his possession or under his control any gun or firearms at any time while hunting, killing or pursuing deer with a bow and arrow. No person shall use or have in his possession or under his control while hunting deer, any poisoned arrow, arrow with explosive tip, or any bow drawn, held or released by mechanical means. Arrows used for hunting deer shall have sharpened steel broad-head blades, not less than $\frac{7}{8}$ inches in width and not more than $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches in width.

Sec. 4. Violation a misdemeanor.—Violation of any of the provisions of this act shall constitute a misdemeanor and be punishable by a fine of not less than $50.00 nor more than $100.00 or by imprisonment in a county jail for not less than 30 nor more than 90 days.

Approved March 25, 1943.

CHAPTER 177—H. F. No. 659.

(AMENDING SECTION 256.01 MINNESOTA STATUTES 1941.)

An act relating to powers and duties of director of social welfare and amending Mason's Supplement 1940, Section 3199-102 (a) (6).

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Law amended—specific powers enumerated.—Mason's Supplement, 1940, Section 3199-102 (a) (6), is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

“Act as the agent of and cooperate with the Federal government in matters of mutual concern relative to and in conformity with the provisions of this act, including the administration of any Federal funds granted to the state to aid in the performance of any functions of the director as specified in this act; and including the promulgation of rules and regulations making uniformly available medical care benefits to all recipients of public assistance at such time as the Federal government increases its participation in assistance expenditures for medical care to recipients of public assistance, the cost thereof to be borne in the same proportion as are the grants of aid to said recipients.”

Approved March 25, 1943.

CHAPTER 178—S. F. No. 46.

(AMENDING SECTION 85.07 MINNESOTA STATUTES 1941.)

An act relating to the leasing of Douglas Lodge and certain other buildings in Itasca State Park, and amending Mason's Statutes 1927, Section 6487.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Law amended.—Mason's Statutes 1927, Section 6487, is hereby amended to read as follows:

“6487. Leasing of buildings.—The commissioner of conservation is hereby authorized to lease Douglas Lodge and the adjacent cottages and buildings situated in Itasca State Park for a term not exceeding ten years, upon condition that the lessee shall, during the term of the lease, keep all said buildings in good condition and repair, operate the same for a period during the summer of each year, as shall be agreed upon by the commissioner of conservation, director of state parks and the lessee prior to the commencement of the season, as a first-class orderly hotel and lunch room, pay the state as rental therefor not less than twenty-five per cent of the net profits arising in connection therewith, or a sum fixed by the commissioner, and surrender the premises to the
