CHAPTER 239—H. F. No. 350.

An act relating to tax forfeited lands legalizing certain sales thereof and payments of delinquent installments on contracts for repurchase thereof and on confession of judgment therefor.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Sales of certain tax forfeited lands legalized.—In all cases where the county board of any county has erroneously authorized and directed the holding of more than one forfeited tax sale, during any one year period, and where such sales have in all other respects been held and conducted in conformity with the provisions of Laws 1935, Chapter 386, and act amendatory thereof, such sales are hereby legalized and made valid.

Sec. 2. Payments legalized.—In all cases where any county auditor and county treasurer have accepted payment of one or more delinquent installments of the purchase price of any repurchase contract, entered into for the repurchase of tax forfeited lands, after the due date of such payment, and where such payments consisted of the full amount of the installment due with accrued interest, said payments are hereby legalized and made valid to the extent that they would have been legal if paid within the time specified in said repurchase contracts.

Sec. 3. Same.—In all cases where any county auditor and county treasurer have accepted payment of one or more delinquent installments of the amount specified in any confession of judgment agreement, after the due date specified in said judgment, and the full amount of the installments with penalty, if any, and interest has been paid, such payments are hereby legalized and made valid to the extent that they would have been legal if paid within the time specified in said confessed judgment.

Approved April 1, 1943.
