

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Law amended.—Mason's Supplement 1940, Section 9455-9, is amended to read as follows:

“9455-9. Issues of fact may be tried.—When a proceeding under this Act involves the determination of an issue of fact, such issue may be tried and determined in the same manner as issues of fact are tried and determined in other civil actions in the court in which the proceeding is pending; provided, that any issue of fact for which a jury trial is not required may be brought on for trial at any special term of the court in like manner as an issue of law unless there is a general term of the court at which such issue of fact may be tried as soon as at such special term.”

CHAPTER 26—S. F. No. 70

An act legalizing conveyances of real property heretofore made by a married man or married woman directly to his or her spouse, and the record of such conveyance.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Certain conveyances to spouses legalized.—All conveyances of real property heretofore made in which a married man or married woman has conveyed real property directly to his or her spouse, are hereby declared to be legal and valid and the records of such conveyances heretofore actually recorded and if not recorded, the register of deeds is hereby authorized to record the same on or before September 1, 1943, in the office of the register of deeds of the proper county, shall be valid and legal. Such conveyances and the records thereof shall have the same force and effect in all respects as conveyances of title and for the purpose of notice, evidence, or otherwise as may be provided by law in regard to conveyance and their records in other cases. The provisions of this act shall not apply to any action or proceeding now pending in any courts of this state.

Filed February 10, 1943.
