

CHAPTER 296—S. F. No. 761.

(AMENDING SECTION 389.03 MINNESOTA STATUTES 1941.)

An act relating to the compensation of the county surveyors and their deputies and amending Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 938.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Section 1. Law amended—compensation of county surveyors.—Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 938 is amended to read as follows:

Except as hereinafter provided, the compensation of county surveyors or their deputies shall be fixed by the Board of County Commissioners at an amount not in excess of $15.00 per day while employed in the performance of their respective duties, including the time necessarily spent in traveling to and from the field of their labor, together with all their necessary expenses, payable by the party or parties who employs the surveyor. The surveyor shall receive $2.00 for platting each survey in each section over which his survey extends in the county record book of survey, and fifteen cents per folio for recording and indexing of the surveyor's descriptive field notes; but in no case shall he receive or charge to exceed $3.00 for platting and recording the plats and records of the survey of any one section, and the surveyor's fees for platting and recording the surveys shall be paid by the county in which the respective lands are situated, and the surveys of the same are kept. Such records shall be public records and open at all reasonable times to inspection by any person. The county board shall, at the expense of the county, provide for the county surveyor all proper and necessary books for keeping such records. Such county record book of survey shall be kept in the office of the register of the deeds of the county, and in event an office for the county surveyor is maintained in the court house then in that event duplicate records shall be kept in the office of the county surveyor.

Approved April 5, 1943.
