CHAPTER 349—H. F. No. 431.

(AMENDING SECTIONS 1.02 AND 1.03 MINNESOTA STATUTES 1941.)

An act relating to concurrent jurisdiction of courts and officers upon certain boundary waters; amending Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Sections 2 and 3.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Law amended.—Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 2, is amended to read as follows:

2. Jurisdiction over waters.—All courts and officers now or hereafter having and exercising jurisdiction in any county which is now or may hereafter be formed in any part of this state bordering upon Big Stone Lake, Lake Traverse, Bois de Sioux River, or the Red River of the North, shall have and exercise jurisdiction in all civil and criminal cases upon such waters concurrently with the courts and officers of other states bordering on such waters, so far and to such extent as any of these bodies of water form a common boundary between this state and any other state.

Sec. 2. Law amended.—Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 3, is amended to read as follows:

3. Waters included.—The concurrent jurisdiction of any county now or hereafter formed and of all courts and officers exercising jurisdiction throughout the county shall extend over such water area as would be included if the boundary lines of the county were produced in the direction of their approach and extended across these waters to the opposite shore.

Approved April 9, 1943.
