CHAPTER 379—S. F. No. 977.

An act providing for the appointment of court reporters and defining their duties, in the second judicial district of this state, and amending Laws 1923, Chapter 77, Sections 1 and 3.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Law amended.—Laws 1923, Chapter 77, Section 1 is amended to read as follows:

Section 1. Court reporter to be appointed.—The Judges of the District Court of the Second Judicial District of the State of Minnesota may, by a duplicate order filed with the Clerk of said Court and with the County Auditor of the county constituting said judicial district, appoint a competent stenographer as the chief official reporter of said court, to hold office during the pleasure of the Court, and who shall, unless otherwise assigned by the Court, act as the reporter of the Senior Judge thereof and as his secretary in all matters pertaining to his official duties. Each Judge of the Court shall appoint a competent stenographer as his official reporter, who shall hold office during the pleasure of such Judge and act as his secretary in all matters pertaining to his official duties. The appointment of each reporter shall be by order filed with the Clerk of the Court, who shall file a copy thereof with the Auditor of the County, and each reporter, including the chief reporter, shall give bond to the State in the sum of two thousand dollars ($2000) to be approved by the Judge by whom the appointment is made, conditioned for the faithful and impartial discharge of all his duties, which bond, with his oath of office, shall be filed with the Clerk.
