

by a guardian ad litem, either before or after the death of such parent. Before any such parent shall receive any money or other property in settlement or compromise of any action so brought, or in satisfaction of any judgment obtained therein, such parent shall file a bond as security therefor, in such form and with such sureties as the court shall prescribe and approve. Provided, however, that upon petition of such parent, the court may, in its discretion, order that in lieu of such bond, any money so received shall be invested in bonds or other securities issued by the United States of America, which shall be deposited for safe-keeping pursuant to an order of the Court, or shall be deposited as a savings account in a banking institution or trust company, together with a copy of the court's order and the evidence of deposit shall be filed with the Clerk of Court, subject to the order of the court, and no settlement or compromise of any such action shall be valid unless the same shall be approved by a judge of the court in which such action is pending.

CHAPTER 417—S. F. No. 653.

(AMENDING SECTION 393.01 MINNESOTA STATUTES 1941.)

An act establishing county welfare boards in certain counties and defining their powers and duties; amending Mason's Supplement 1940, Section 974-11, Subdivision (e).

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Law amended—County Welfare Board established—Poor and Hospital Commission to be county welfare board in certain counties.—Mason's Supplement 1940, Section 974-11, Subd. (e), is amended to read as follows:

In any county now having a Board of Poor and Hospital Commissioners, said Board of Poor and Hospital Commissioners shall have the same powers and duties as the County Welfare Board in other counties, and shall be the County Welfare Board, and shall also retain and exercise the powers and duties conferred upon such Board by Chapter 187, of the Laws of 1917, as amended by Chapter 60 of the Laws of 1931, in counties in which said 1917 law as amended is applicable.
