CHAPTER 43—H. F. No. 368

(AMENDING SECTION 63.36 MINNESOTA STATUTES 1941.)

An act relating to employers who make deductions from wages for employees' funds amending Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 3444.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Law amended.—Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 3444, is amended to read as follows:

3444. Mutual benefit associations; employers who make deductions from wages or employees' funds must secure license.—No employer shall make deductions from the wages of his employees for the purpose of furnishing them with medical or hospital care, accident, sickness or old age insurance or benefits, unless he first receives from the commissioner of insurance a licence for the benefit plan he operates or proposes to operate. Such license shall be granted only when the commissioner is satisfied that the benefits given are commensurate with the charges made and that the charges will keep the fund solvent. All such licenses shall be for the period of one year. The commissioner may require a statement of the operation of the fund, on a form to be prescribed by him, before granting a renewal. The fee for any such license is $1.00 and for filing the annual statement $1.00. Before granting a license the commissioner of insurance shall submit the proposed plan to the chairman of the industrial commission in order that he may determine whether the benefits are in conjunction with benefits under the workmen's compensation act.

This section shall not apply to deductions made from employees' wages for group insurance issued by insurers authorized to transact business in this state.

Approved February 18, 1943.
