Section 1. Certain cities may maintain policemen's relief association. The Police Department of each city of the fourth class whether under a home rule charter or not, now or hereafter having a population of more than 9,000 inhabitants according to the 1940 census, employing ten or more regular and fully paid policemen shall maintain a policemen's relief association which shall be duly incorporated under the laws of this state. All such associations now existing as such corporations, or hereafter incorporated under the laws of this state, shall have perpetual existence.

Sec. 2. Organization; power to regulate. Each such relief association shall be organized, operated, and maintained in accordance with its own articles of incorporation and by-laws, by policemen, as hereinafter defined, who are members of said police departments. Each association shall have the power to regulate its own management and its own affairs, and all additional corporate powers which may be necessary or useful; subject, however, to the regulations and restrictions of this act, and other laws of this state pertaining to corporations, not inconsistent herewith.

Sec. 3. Policeman defined; not to affect present pensions. A policeman under this act is a duly appointed policeman, policewoman, or police matron, who is regularly entered on the payroll of the police department of such city, serving on active duty therein, after having completed any probationary period required under the laws or ordinances of such city. Probationers in the police department, substitutes and persons employed irregularly from time to time, and elective officials of such department, shall not be deemed to be included under this act.

All persons who are members of the policemen's relief associations of such cities, at the time of the passage of this act, whether their status is embraced within the definition of a policeman herein contained or otherwise, shall have the right to continue as members of their respective associations and be entitled to all benefits pertaining thereto, and any member included under the definition of policeman herein provided shall have the right to retain his membership on promotion or appointment to other positions to which such policemen herein may be subject.

This act shall not affect any pensions or other benefits which have been allowed or which are being paid by any such relief association under or in accordance with any prior act or acts, at the time this act becomes effective. Payment of such pensions and benefits shall be continued by the respective associations in accordance with their articles of incorporation and by-laws, and shall be subject to all of the provisions thereof, existing at the time of the passage of this act, or as thereafter duly repealed or amended.

Sec. 4. Membership automatic. Every policeman as herein defined shall automatically become a member of the policemen's relief association of any such city upon the completion of any probationary period required under the laws or ordinances of such city and his appointment as a regular policeman of such city as defined in Section 3. hereof. They shall file duplicate original copies thereof with the clerk or city recorder of the city in which the association is located, and with the mayor and the treasurer thereof. No money shall be paid to a relief association by the city in which the association is located until said report is so filed.

Sec. 7. Tax levy; limitation; payment to association treasurer. The city council or other governing body of each such city wherein such a relief association is located shall each year, at the time the tax levies for the support of the city are made, and in addition thereto, levy a tax for the benefit of the special relief fund of such policemen's relief association of one mill on all taxable property within such city, until the balance in said special fund of such policemen's relief association in any such city has reached the sum of $50,000, and thereafter said levy may be reduced by such city to a sum sufficient to maintain the balance in said special fund at not less than $50,000, but in no event shall said tax levy be re-

The tax so levied shall be transmitted with other tax levies to the auditor of the county in which such city is located and by said county shall be collected and payment thereof enforced, when and in like manner as state and county taxes are paid.

As soon as practicable after the first day of June and the first day of November, in each year, the county treasurer of each such county shall pay to the treasurer of each such relief association within said county the amount of such tax then collected and payable to said association, together with all interest and penalties so collected, and all interest collected thereon between the time of collection and the time of payment to such relief association.
