

dealings by the assignor with any such property as his own, and no payment to or adjustment made by an assignor as described in Section 3, Subdivision 2, or in Section 4, Subdivision 1, hereof shall invalidate the assignee's right to, or lien upon, any balance remaining owing on such account or his right to or lien on any other account assigned to him by the assignor, irrespective of whether the assignee shall have consented to, or acquiesced in, such acts of the assignor. The rights of any party who in good faith and for value purchases returned or recovered personal property are superior to the rights of the assignee.

Sec. 6. Release of assignments. When an assignee has released, reassigned, or otherwise transferred an account back to the assignor, nothing herein shall be construed to limit thereafter the rights of the assignor or a subsequent assignee respecting such account, or the proceeds thereof, or property returned thereon, until and unless a new assignment is perfected in accordance herewith.

Sec. 7. Interpretation. The provisions of this act shall not apply to any general assignment for the benefit of creditors nor to any assignment made before this act takes effect.

Approved April 23, 1945.

CHAPTER 504—H. F. No. 780

An act providing for the granting of vacations to employees and officers of cities, villages and towns.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Vacations. That hereafter the governing body of every city, village and town in the State of Minnesota, however organized, may by resolution or ordinance provide for the granting of vacations, with or without pay, to all its regularly employed employees or officers, upon such terms and under such conditions as said governing body may determine, and subject to such requirements as to length of service with such municipality as said governing body may require.

Sec. 2. Not retroactive. Nothing in the foregoing provisions shall be construed as retroactive in its purpose or intent so as to give the governing body of any such city, village or town the right to grant vacations based on service of its employees or officers rendered prior to the enactment of such ordinance or resolution.

Approved April 23, 1945.

CHAPTER 505—H. F. No. 1212

An act relating to the reinstatement of agreements for the repurchase of tax forfeited land, and legalizing payments of delinquent installments for purchase thereof.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Reinstatement of agreements on tax forfeited lands. Any agreement for repurchase of tax forfeited land which has been terminated for default may be reinstated as herein provided upon a written request by the purchaser under the agreement, his heirs, successors, assigns, or any person to whom the right to pay taxes is given by statute, mortgage or other written agreement, filed with the county auditor not later than December 31, 1946, provided that the land has not been resold. The petitioner shall deposit therewith an amount sufficient to pay all delinquent payments under the agreement, taxes, penalties, interest and costs required to be paid under the agreement, together with an amount equal to the taxes and assessments that would have been levied and payable but for the termination of such repurchase agreement; such taxes shall be computed by the county auditor as in the case of omitted taxes that would have been assessed between the date of the termination of such agreement and the petition for reinstatement thereof.

Sec. 2. Auditor to note reinstatement; taxes to be levied on lands. Thereupon the county auditor shall note the reinstatement upon his records and shall pay over to the county treasurer the amount deposited by the petitioner. If such reinstatement is made after May 1, 1945, the county auditor shall levy taxes for the year 1945 on said land as in the case of omitted taxes.

Sec. 3. Payments legalized. In all cases where any county auditor and county treasurer have accepted payment of one or more delinquent installments of the purchase price of any repurchase agreement, entered into for the repurchase of tax forfeited lands, after the due date of such payment, and
