CHAPTER 578—S. F. No. 1307

An act defining certain crimes relating to prostitution, prescribing the punishment therefor, and defining the rights and duties of witnesses, and providing for the admissibility of certain evidence in cases pertaining thereto.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Transportation prohibited. It shall be unlawful to direct, take or transport, or to offer or agree to take or transport any person to any place, structure, building or conveyance, or to any other person, with knowledge that the purpose of such directing, taking or transporting is prostitution, for hire.

Sec. 2. Division of illegal earnings prohibited. It shall be unlawful for any woman engaged in prostitution to pay, offer to pay, or turn over any of the proceeds or earnings from such prostitution to any person, for his or her support or maintenance, in whole or in part.

Sec. 3. Testimony not privileged. No person shall be excused or privileged from testifying fully under oath in any prosecution brought under the provisions of this act, but no testimony so given by any person shall be used against him or her in any criminal action to which he or she is a party, except a prosecution for perjury committed in giving such testimony.

Sec. 4. Reputation admissible in evidence. At the trial of any person charged with violating any of the provisions of this act the reputation of any place, structure, building or conveyance shall be admissible in evidence in support of the charge.

Sec. 5. Penalty. Any person who violates the provisions of Section 1 of this Act shall be guilty of a felony, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than five years, or by a fine of not more than $1,000, or by both. Any person who violates the provisions of Section 2 of this Act shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or by a fine of not more than $1,000, or by both.

Approved April 23, 1945.

CHAPTER 579—S. F. No. 1312

An act relating to a county school tax levy in certain counties having an area of more than 5,000 square miles; for the retirement of the existing indebtedness of the unorganized school territory of such county and the issuance of bonds therefor; and relating to the financial affairs of such unorganized school territory.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Special county school tax levy in St. Louis County. In any county of this state now or hereafter having an area in excess of 5,000 square miles, of which more
