CHAPTER 585—H. F. No. 59

An act relating to appointments to positions in the public service of the State of Minnesota and its political subdivisions during and after the present war emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Suspension period. For the purposes of this act the period from and after its passage and until six months after the termination of the present war emergency as declared by proper federal authority, or until June 1, 1947, whichever is later, shall be known as the suspension period.

Sec. 2. Termination of appointments made during suspension period. Except as otherwise herein provided, appointments made during such suspension period to fill any position in the classified Civil Service of the State of Minnesota or any of its political subdivisions, or to fill any other appointive position in the public service of the state or any of its political subdivisions which is subject to veteran's preference under any existing law or charter provision shall be governed by the existing law or charter provision applicable to such appointment, but any rights of a person appointed to such a position during such suspension period to continued tenure therein shall terminate upon the expiration of such suspension period, and thereafter such appointee shall be deemed to hold such position on a temporary basis only, subject to the filling of such position on a permanent basis as herein provided. The rights of persons now serving the six months' probationary period shall not be restricted by this act.

Sec. 3. Appointments of special scientific, technical, or administrative qualifications. Upon the request of the appointing authority, and with the approval of the Civil Service Board in the case of the State Civil Service, or the approval of the corresponding authority in the case of the Civil Service of the political subdivision, a position in the classified service requiring unusual qualifications of a scientific, tech-
