

(12) A table showing the amount of instalments in which the policy may provide its proceeds may be payable;

(13) A title on the face and on the back of the policy correctly describing the same.

Any of the foregoing provisions or portions thereof relating to premiums not applicable to single premium policies, shall not be incorporated therein.

Sec. 16. Repeals. Minnesota Statutes 1945, Sections 61.19, 61.26, 61.27, 61.28, 61.29, and 61.35 are hereby repealed.

[61.288] Sec. 17. Election to comply with act. After the effective date of this act, any company may file with the commissioner a written notice of its election to comply with the provisions of the act after a specified date before January 1, 1948. After the filing of such notice, then upon this specified date the act becomes operative with respect to the policies thereafter issued by the company. If a company makes no such election, the operative date of this act for such company is January 1, 1948.

Approved March 31, 1947.

CHAPTER 183—H. F. No. 508

An act relating to retirement pay or pensions for judges of the probate courts and amending Minnesota Statutes 1945, Section 490.12.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1945, Section 490.12, is amended to read as follows:

490.12. To receive half pay. Subdivision 1. Retirement under section 490.11. When a probate judge shall be retired under the provisions of section 490.11, he shall receive the compensation allotted to his office for the remainder of his term, or, if then past 70 years of age, having served as such judge continually for 40 years, or more, he shall receive one-half of the compensation allotted to his office at the time of such retirement for the remainder of his life, to be paid at the time and in the manner provided by law.

Subd. 2. Voluntary retirement. After a probate judge has attained the age of 70 years or more and has served as such judge continuously for 40 years or more, he may voluntarily retire at the end of his term of office, even though he is not physically or mentally incapacitated from performing the duties of his office, and after he has so retired he shall receive one-half of the compensation allotted to his office at the time of such retirement for the remainder of his life, to be paid at the time and in the manner provided by law for the payment of salaries of probate judges.

Approved March 31, 1947.

CHAPTER 184—H. F. No. 630

[Coded as Sections 32.281 to 32.285]

An act relating to the preparation, aging, labeling, distribution and sale of cheese.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

[32.281] Section 1. Cheese defined. The term "cheese" as used in this act shall include all varieties of cheese, cheese spreads, cheese foods, cheese compounds, or processed cheese, made or manufactured in whole or in part from cow's, goat's, or sheep's milk.

[32.282] Sec. 2. Mandatory process provisions. No person, firm, or corporation shall manufacture, transport, sell, offer, or expose for sale or have in possession with intent to sell, at retail to a consumer any cheese which has not been (a) manufactured from milk or milk products which have been pasteurized in accordance with Minnesota Statutes 1945, Sections 32.391 and 32.392, or (b) subjected to a heat treatment equivalent to pasteurization during the process of manufacture or processing, or (c) subjected to an aging process whereby it has been kept for at least 60 days after manufacture at a temperature not lower than 35 degrees Fahrenheit; provided, however, the aging process under provisions of this act, required for limburger and limburger brick cheese, shall be a minimum of 25 days.

[32.283] Sec. 3. Statement by manufacturer. Each cheese or packaged cheese sold, offered, or exposed for sale or held in possession with intent to sell at either retail or
