Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1945, Section 139.04, is amended to read as follows:

139.04. Powers and privileges. The society may acquire money or property of any kind by gift or bequest and it may purchase works of art produced by artists born or living in this state, provided that no one artist shall be paid in any year more than $500 in addition to the costs of materials and casting of any sculpture purchased from him. In so acquiring works of art, it may select them from the annual exhibition at the state fair or other exhibitions or sources. The society may hire any works of art for exhibition purposes. The works of art acquired by the society shall be made available for the education and enjoyment of the people of the state through lending them singly or in groups, for stated periods or indefinitely, for exhibition in suitable places throughout the state, including educational and cultural institutions, libraries, hospitals and any buildings owned, controlled or occupied by the state or any of its political subdivisions. Any institution or municipality receiving any such exhibition or loan may be required to pay such share of the society's costs and expenses as the governing board in its discretion may determine to be fair and reasonable.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1945, Section 139.05, is amended to read as follows:

139.05. Expense authorized. The society may incur and pay all expenses reasonably necessary for properly selecting, preserving, transporting and exhibiting all works of art that it may acquire.

Sec. 6. Repealed. Minnesota Statutes 1945, Section 139.06, is hereby repealed.

Approved April 5, 1947.
