

CHAPTER 521—H. F. No. 1442

An act relating to reservation of minerals under public waters.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1945, Section 93.06, is amended to read as follows:

93.06. Reservation of minerals under navigable lakes. All iron ores and other minerals on, in or under lands within this state which lie beneath the waters of navigable lakes and rivers belong to the state, together with the right to enter upon such lands and explore for and mine and remove such iron ore and other minerals and that the state now has and since its organization has had the right to sell, lease, or otherwise use or dispose of such mineral lands and such iron ores and other minerals in the same manner as any other mineral lands, ores, or minerals belonging to the state, and that the title of the state to such iron ore or other minerals, together with the right to explore for, mine, or remove the same, shall not be affected by the subsequent drying up of such lakes or rivers.

Approved April 23, 1947.

CHAPTER 522—H. F. No. 1497

An act relating to police civil service commissions and the appointment of a chief of police in any city of the second class located in two or more counties; amending Minnesota Statutes 1941, Section 419.07.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. That Minnesota Statutes 1941, Section 419.07, be amended to read as follows:

419.07. Officers discharged only after hearing. No officer or employee after six months' continuous employment shall be removed or discharged except for cause upon written charges and after an opportunity to be heard in his own defense as in this chapter hereinafter provided. Such charges shall be investigated by or before such civil service commission. The finding and decision of such commission shall be forthwith certified to the chief or other appointed or superior
