CHAPTER 527—S. F. No. 361
[Coded as Sections 540.151 to 540.154]

An act relating to judicial procedure, parties to actions, and service of judicial process and certain other notices.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

[540.151] Suability of certain persons and associations; labor organizations; employer organizations. Section 1. When two or more persons associate and act, whether for profit or not, under a common name, including associating and acting as a labor organization or employer organization, whether such common name comprises the names of such persons or not, they may sue in or be sued by such common name, and the summons may be served on one or more of them. The judgment in such cases shall accrue to the joint or common benefit of and bind the joint or common property of the associates, the same as though all had been named as parties to the action.

[540.152] Certain transactions or activities suable; service; notice; jurisdiction. Sec. 2. The transaction of any acts, business or activities within the State of Minnesota by any officer, agent, representative, employee or member of any Union or other groups or associations having officers, agents, members or property without the State on behalf of such Union or other groups or associations or any of its members or affiliated local unions shall be deemed an appointment by such Union or other groups or associations of the Secretary of State of the State of Minnesota to be the true and lawful attorney of such Union or other groups or associations, upon whom may be served all legal processes or notices in any action or proceeding against or involving said Union or other groups or associations growing out of such acts, business or activities within the State of Minnesota resulting in damage or loss to person or property or giving rise to any cause of action under the laws of the State of Minnesota or to any matters or proceedings arising under the Minnesota Labor Relations Act, and such acts, business or activities shall be a signification of the agreement of said Union or other groups or associations and its members that any such process or notice in any action, matter, or proceeding against or involving it, which is so served, shall be of the same legal force and validity as if served upon such Union or other groups or associations and its members personally. Service of such process or notice shall be made by filing a copy thereof in the office of the Secretary of State together with payment of a fee of $2.00 and such service shall be sufficient service upon said Union or other groups or associations and its members; and notice of such service and a copy of the process or notice shall, within ten days thereafter, be sent by mail by the person who caused the same to be served to such Union or other groups or associations at its last known address and an affidavit of compliance with the provisions of this chapter shall be filed with the Court or other State agency or department before which the action, matter, or proceeding is pending.

[540.153] Certain persons or organizations excepted. Sec. 3. This act shall not apply to any person or labor organization subject to the Federal Railway Labor Act, U.S.C.A. Title 45, Chapter 8.

[540.154] Severable. Sec. 4. The provisions of this Act are severable and if any provisions of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be adjudged to be invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the provisions or application of this Act which can be given effect without the provisions or application held invalid.

Approved April 24, 1947.
