

by an order of an issuing authority revoking any license may appeal from that order to the district court of the county in which the licensee resides by serving a notice of his appeal upon the issuing authority or the clerk thereof. The notice of appeal shall state that the person appealing takes an appeal to that district court from the order revoking the license or licenses, describing them and identifying the order appealed from. This notice shall be served within 15 days from the date of service of the order appealed from, and the same, with proof of service thereof, shall be filed with the clerk of the district court of the proper county. The appeal shall stand for trial at the next term of the district court following the filing of the notice of appeal, without the service of any notice of trial, and shall be tried in the district court de novo. The trial shall be by jury if the appellant shall so demand. The licensee may continue to operate the licensed business or businesses until the final disposition of such appeal. If the district court upon the appeal shall determine that any license involved in the appeal should be revoked, it may, nevertheless, in its discretion permit the continuance of the licensed business under a bond in the amount and in the form and containing the conditions prescribed by the court. The district court on the appeal, or in a separate proceeding, may permit the issuance of a new license to a different licensee before the expiration of the period of one year specified in subdivision 2 of section 6, upon such terms and conditions imposed by the court as will insure that no gambling device shall thereafter be maintained upon the licensed premises.

Approved April 26, 1947.

CHAPTER 587—H. F. No. 1175

[Coded as Sections 362.07 to 362.25]

An act relating to the organization and administration of the state government; providing for the creation of the Department of Business Research and Development and prescribing the powers and duties thereof; amending Minnesota Statutes 1945, Section 84.081, Subdivision 1, and repealing Laws 1945, Chapter 468.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

[362.07] Department of business research and development. Section 1. There is hereby created and established a department of the state government to be designated and known as the Department of Business Research and Development, said department and all officials thereof to be subject to the provisions and limitations of this act.

[362.08] Definitions. Sec. 2. As used in this act, "department" means the department of business research and development, and "commissioner" means the commissioner of business research and development.

[362.09] Commissioner; appointment; term; salary; bond. Sec. 3. The department shall be under the supervision and control of a commissioner of business research and development, who shall be appointed by the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate. He shall be chosen with regard to his knowledge, training, experience, and ability in administering the functions of the department. He shall serve for a term of four years from the first Monday in January of the year of his appointment and until his successor is appointed and has qualified, or until he is removed by the governor for cause after notice and hearing. In case of a vacancy, the governor may appoint a commissioner for the unexpired term, who shall thereupon immediately take office and shall carry on all the duties of the office until the next session of the legislature, when his appointment shall be submitted to the senate for approval. The commissioner shall receive a salary of $6,000 per year, payable semimonthly. He shall give a bond to the state in the sum of $10,000.

[362.10] Functions. Sec. 4. The department of business research and development shall encompass the following functions: (1) research and statistics, (2) publicity and promotion, and (3) enforcement.

[362.11] Duties of commissioner. Sec. 5. The commissioner shall have power, and it shall be his duty, to exercise the functions, perform the work, and carry on the activities specified in sections 7, 8, and 9 as functions of the department.

[362.12] Scope of departmental powers and duties. Sec. 6. Subdivision 1. Enumeration. The department shall:

(1) Investigate, study, and undertake ways and means of promoting and encouraging the prosperous development and protection of the legitimate interest and welfare of Minnesota business, industry, and commerce, within and outside the state;

(2) Locate markets for manufacturers and processors and aid merchants in locating and contacting markets;

(3) Investigate and study conditions affecting Minnesota business, industry, and commerce and collect and disseminate information, and engage in technical studies, scientific investigations, and statistical research and educational activities necessary or useful for the proper execution of the powers and duties of the department in promoting and developing Minnesota business, industry, and commerce, both within and outside the state;

(4) Plan and develop an effective business information service both for the direct assistance of business and industry of the state and for the encouragement of business and industry outside the state to use economic facilities within the state;

(5) Compile, collect, and develop periodically, or otherwise make available, information relating to current business conditions;

(6) Conduct or encourage research designed to further new and more extensive uses of the natural and other resources of the state and designed to develop new products and industrial processes;

(7) Study trends and developments in the industries of the state and analyze the reasons underlying such trends; study costs and other factors affecting successful operation of businesses within the state; and make recommendations regarding circumstances promoting or hampering business and industrial development;

(8) Serve as a clearing house for business and industrial problems of the state; and advise small business enterprises regarding improved methods of accounting and bookkeeping;

(9) Encourage and develop commerce with other states and foreign countries and devise ways and means of removing trade barriers hampering the free flow of commerce between this and other states;

(10) Cooperate with interstate commissions engaged in formulating and promoting the adoption of interstate compacts and agreements helpful to business, industry, and commerce;

(11) Cooperate with other state departments, and with boards, commissions, and other state agencies, in the preparation and coordination of plans and policies for the development of the state and for the use and conservation of its resources insofar as such use, conservation, and development may be appropriately directed or influenced by state agency;

(12) Assemble and coordinate information relative to the status, scope, cost, and employment possibilities and the availability of materials, equipment, and labor in connection with public works projects, state, county, and municipal; recommend limitations on said public works; gather current progress information with reference to public and private works projects of the state and its political subdivisions with reference to conditions of employment; inquire into and report to the governor, when requested by him, with respect to any program of public state improvements and the financing thereof; and request and obtain information from other state departments or agencies as may be needed properly to report thereon;

(13) Study changes in population and current trends and prepare plans and suggest policies for the development and conservation of the resources of the state;

(14) Confer and cooperate with the executive, legislative, or planning authorities of the United States and neighboring states and of the counties and municipalities of such neighboring states, for the purpose of bringing about a coordination between the development of such neighboring states, counties, and municipalities and the development of this state;

(15) Generally, gather, compile, and make available statistical information relating to business, trade, commerce, industry, transportation, communication, natural resources, and other like subjects in this state; with authority to call upon other departments of the state for statistical data and results obtained by them and to arrange and compile that statistical information in such manner as may seem wise.

Subd. 2. Information available to the public. Statistical and other information obtained by the division of research and statistics in the exercise of its powers and duties shall be available at all times to the public.

Subd. 3. Governor may assign new duties; transfer from other departments. The Governor may by order in writing transfer at any time the whole or any part of any office, bureau, division, or other branch of the state government engaged in statistical work to the department of business research and development, and in every such case the duties and authority performed by and conferred by law upon such office, bureau, division, or other branch of the state government or the part thereof so transferred shall be thereby transferred with such office, bureau, division, or other branch of the state government or the part thereof which is so transferred.

[362.13]. Additional powers and duties. Sec. 7. Subdivision 1. The department shall:

(1) Have control of the work of carrying on a continuous program of education for business men;

(2) Publish, disseminate, and distribute information and statistics acquired by the division of research and statistics in cooperation with that division;

(3) Promote and encourage the expansion and development of markets for Minnesota products;

(4) Promote and encourage the location and development of new business in the state as well as the maintenance and expansion of existing business and for that purpose cooperate with state and local agencies and individuals, both within and outside the state;

(5) Advertise and disseminate information as to natural resources, desirable locations, and other advantages for the purpose of attracting business to locate in this state;

(6) Aid the various communities in this state in getting business to locate therein;

(7) Advise and cooperate with municipal, county, regional, and other planning agencies and planning groups within the state for the purpose of promoting coordination between the state and localities as to plans and development in order to maintain a high level of gainful employment in private profitable production and achieve commensurate advancement in social and cultural welfare; coordinate the activities of state-wide and local planning agencies, correlate information secured from them and from state departments, and disseminate information and suggestions to such planning agencies; and encourage and assist in the organization and functioning of local planning agencies where none exist;

(8) Adopt such measures as may best be calculated to promote public interest in and understanding of the problems of planning and, to that end, may publish and distribute copies of any plan or any report and may employ such other means of publicity and education as shall give full effect to the provisions of this act;

(9) Perform the functions and carry out programs heretofore performed and carried out by the tourist bureau of the department of conservation, plan and conduct programs of information and publicity designed to attract tourists, visitors, and other interested persons from outside the state to this state, and in that connection encourage and coordinate the efforts of other public and private organizations or groups of citizens to publicize the facilities and attractions of the state and work with representatives of the tourist and resort industry in carrying out its programs.

[362.14] Additional duties. Sec. 8. Subdivision 1. Investigate offenses against the provisions of certain designated sections; assist in enforcement. The department shall investigate violations of the laws of this state respecting unfair, discriminatory, and other unlawful practices in business, commerce, or trade, and specifically, but not exclusively, the act against unfair discrimination and competition (Minnesota Statutes 1945, Sections 325.02 to 325.07), the fair trade act (Minnesota Statutes 1945, Sections 325.08 to 325.14), the unlawful trade practices act (Minnesota Statutes 1945, Sections 325.141 to 325.148), the automobile dealers' anti-coercion act (Minnesota Statutes 1945, Sections 325.15 to 325.24), Minnesota Statutes 1945, Section 620.52, and other laws against false or fraudulent advertising, the antidiscrimination acts contained in Minnesota Statutes 1945, Sections 623.08 to 623.15, the antitrust act (Minnesota Statutes 1945, Section 623.01), and the act against monopolization of food products (Minnesota Statutes 1945, Section 623.19), and assist in the enforcement of those laws as in this section provided.

Subd. 2. Commissioner to assist in discovery and punishment of illegal practices. When the commissioner, from information in his possession, has reasonable ground to believe that any person, partnership, association, or corporation has within one year violated, or is about to violate, any of the laws of this state referred to in Subdivision 1, he, his deputy, and the officers and employees and agents of the division of enforcement, shall have power to investigate those violations, or suspected violations, and to take such steps as are necessary to cause the arrest and prosecution of all persons, partnerships, associations, or corporations violating any of the statutes specifically mentioned in subdivision 1 or any other laws respecting unfair, discriminatory, or other unlawful practices in business, commerce, or trade.

Subd. 3. Injunctive relief. In addition to the penalties provided by law for violation of the laws referred to in subdivision 1, specifically and generally, where injunctive relief is not otherwise provided by law, the courts of this state are vested with jurisdiction to prevent and restrain violations of those laws. Whenever it shall appear to the satisfaction of the commissioner that any of those laws is being violated, or is about to be violated, he shall be entitled, on behalf of the state, to sue for and have injunctive relief in any court of competent jurisdiction against any such violation or threatened violation without abridging the penalties provided by law.

Subd. 4. Exception. The provisions of this section shall not apply to any person, firm or corporation engaged in the insurance business and as such subject to Laws 1947, Chapter 129.

[362.15] Reports and recommendations to the governor. Sec. 9. The commissioner shall cause to be prepared and submitted to the governor and to the legislature at each regular session, and at each special session when so requested by the governor, a report of the activities of the department, together with such information and data in the possession of the department as the commissioner shall deem of value to the governor, the legislature, and the people of the state of Minnesota. Each such report may contain such recommendations and legislation as the commissioner may deem necessary to give full effect to all the provisions of this act.

[362.16] Cooperation with other agencies, boards, and commissions. Sec. 10. If requested by the governor and if the facilities are available, the department may provide office space, telephone, reception, stenographic, and bookkeeping service to other state agencies, boards, and commissions whose functions are closely related to those of the department, such as the Tri-State Waters Commission, the Great Lakes-Saint Lawrence Tidewater Commission, and the Upper Mississippi and Saint Croix River Improvement Commission. The funds of those agencies, boards, and commissions shall be kept separate from those of the department, and a reasonable charge may be made by the department for facilities furnished and services performed and funds transferred for the purpose of paying those charges.

[362.17] Grants from federal government or from individuals. Sec. 11. The department is authorized to accept any grant of funds or property made by the United States or any department or agency thereof, or by any individual, for any or all of the purposes specified in this act, and shall expend said funds in accordance with the terms and conditions of the grant. The department is specifically empowered to act for the state and its political subdivisions as provided in Public Law 458 of the 78th Congress, cited as the War Mobilization and Reconversion Act of 1944, with respect to loans for planned services for public works programs of the state and its political subdivisions.

[362.18] Department to receive assistance, information, and advice from other state departments or agencies. Sec. 12. The governor may direct that assistance, information and advice be given the department in the performance of its duties and functions by any officer, agent, or employee of the state. The head of any other state department may assign temporarily to the department experts and employees of his department or may direct any division or agency under his supervision and control to make any special study or survey requested by the commissioner.

[362.19] Cooperation with University of Minnesota. Sec. 13. The commissioner shall at all times cooperate with the University of Minnesota and its departments and shall obtain from the University such assistance as it may be able to afford him in relation to research and promotion as will aid in carrying out the provisions of this act.

[362.20] Sale of pamphlets and publications. Sec. 14. the commissioner shall have authority to sell, at their approximate cost to the state, such publications of the department as in his judgment should not be supplied gratis to those who wish to employ them in the conduct of their business.

[362.21] Transfer of rights, powers, and duties from Minnesota resources commission and Minnesota tourist bureau. Sec. 15. All the rights, powers, and duties by law imposed by and vested in the Minnesota resources commission, and the Minnesota tourist bureau are hereby transferred to and imposed upon the department. The Minnesota resources commission, and the Minnesota tourist bureau shall transfer and deliver to the commissioner all contracts, books, maps, plans, papers, records, and property of every description within their jurisdiction or control, and shall also transfer to him any and all employees engaged in the functions, powers, and duties transferred. The commissioner is hereby authorized to take possession of said property, and shall take charge of said employees, and shall employ them in the respective functions, powers, and duties transferred as aforesaid and in other functions, powers, and duties provided in this act, without reduction of compensation, subject, however, to change or termination of employment or compensation as may be otherwise provided by law. Whenever the Minnesota resources commission or the Minnesota tourist bureau is referred to or designated in any contract or document, such reference and designation shall be deemed, after the effective date of this act, to mean and refer to the department of business research and development.

[362.22] Transfer of funds. Sec. 16. The unexpended balance now remaining in the donors' survey of economic conditions funds shall be transferred to the credit of the department.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1945, Section 84.081, Subdivision 1, is amended to read as follows:

84.081. Divisions of department. Subdivision 1. Directors. The department of conservation shall be organized with the following divisions: a division of forestry, a division of water resources and engineering, a division of game and fish, a division of lands and minerals, and a division of state parks. Each division shall be under the immediate charge of a director, subject to the general supervision and control of the commissioner. The directors shall be appointed by the commissioner, to serve at his pleasure, and shall be in the unclassified service of the state. They shall be chosen with regard to knowledge, training, experience, and ability in administering the work of their respective divisions.

[362.23] Personnel. Sec. 18. The department may hire such personnel as is necessary to carry on its functions. The personnel in the classified service under the state civil service of the governmental agencies whose functions are transferred to the department herein created are hereby transferred to this department.

[362.24] Transfer of appropriations. Sec. 19. All the appropriations made to the tourist bureau and the Minnesota resources commission whose functions are transferred to the department herein created are hereby transferred and appropriated to the department of business, research and development.

[362.25] Appropriations for biennium. Sec. 20. In addition to the appropriations transferred to this department the following sums are hereby appropriated from the general revenue fund to the commissioner for the administration of this act: $35,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1948; and $35,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1949.

Sec. 21. Effective date. This act shall take effect July 1, 1947.

Sec. 22. Repealer. Laws 1945, Chapter 468, are hereby repealed.

Approved April 26, 1947.

CHAPTER 588—H. F. No. 1322
[Section 2 Coded as Section 122.015]

An act authorizing the establishment of associated school districts, defining their powers and amending Minnesota Statutes 1945, Section 122.01, by adding a new subdivision.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1945, Section 122.01, is amended to read:

122.01. School districts. Subdivision 1. How divided. For school purposes the state is divided into common school districts, special school districts, independent school districts, consolidated school districts, ten-or-more township school districts, county school districts, unorganized territories and associated districts, each of which shall be a public corporation. All school districts shall be numbered consecutively in each county, and each shall be known as school district No. of county. A district, when situated in two or more counties, shall be known as joint _____ school district No. of county and No. of county. Special school districts shall be known by the names or number given them at their organization.

Subd. 2. Common school district. A common school district is a district organized as such, with a board of three members, in which the electors determine the length of the school term and amount of the tax levy.

Subd. 3. Special school district. A special school district is a district established by a charter granted by the legislature. In such districts the number of board members and the powers and duties are prescribed by the charter. Unless otherwise provided, the board of such district has the powers of a board in an independent district.

Subd. 4. Independent school district. An independent school district is a district organized as such having a board of six members, which board is vested with the authority to determine the length of school terms and the tax levy.
