CHAPTER 641—S. F. No. 1171
[Not Coded]

An act proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Minnesota, Article XIV, Section 2, so as to permit two-thirds of the members of each branch of the Legislature to provide by law for calling a constitutional convention.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Proposed constitutional amendment. The following amendment to the Constitution of the State of Minnesota, Article XIV, Section 2, is hereby proposed to the people of the state for their approval or rejection, which section when amended shall read as follows:

Sec. 2. Revision of Constitution. Two-thirds of the members elected to each branch of the legislature may provide by law for calling a convention to revise this Constitution. The convention shall consist of as many members as the House of Representatives, who shall be chosen in the same manner, and shall meet within three months after their election for the purpose aforesaid.

Sec. 2. Submitted to voters. The proposed amendment shall be submitted to the voters of the state for their approval or rejection at the general election for the year 1948 in the manner provided by law for submission of amendments to the constitution. The ballots used at the election on the proposed amendment shall have printed thereon:

“Shall the Constitution, Article XIV, Section 2, be amended so as to permit two-thirds of the members of each branch of the legislature to provide by law for calling a constitutional convention without submitting the question to a vote of the people?”

Approved April 28, 1947.
