

shall not be in excess of five per cent of the teacher's average yearly salary for the five years of service immediately preceding 1947, multiplied by the number of years of previous service for which the teacher has been given credit, together with interest on the same at the rate of four per cent per annum from the time of first rendering that previous service until July 1, 1947. All cash and installment payments herein provided for shall be paid in full prior to August 1, 1952. Those members shall have the rights provided for and be subject to the provisions of sections 135.06 and 135.10 (except as hereinafter provided), and sections 135.11. Any such teachers teaching at such part of the University of Minnesota may remain members of the fund and receive credit for such teaching until they become eligible to participate in the University of Minnesota Faculty Retirement Plan.

Subd. 3. If the proceeds of the sales of the certificates of indebtedness shall in any year be insufficient to pay the state's obligation in full, said proceeds shall first be used to pay the state's obligation to those annuitants who became members as provided in subdivision 1, and those members who, on January 1, 1932, were drawing annuities under Laws 1915, Chapter 199, as provided in section 135.07.

Subd. 4. In order to meet the state's increased obligation due to the admission of the teachers who may become members of the fund under the provisions of subdivision 2, the board is hereby authorized to certify to the state auditor, in addition to the amounts provided in section 135.13, not to exceed during the next biennium, 1947-1949, $30,000, and subsequently, not to exceed in any one year thereafter the sum of $50,000, and the state auditor is hereby directed to include in the levies provided for in said section the additional amounts so certified to him by the teachers retirement fund board.

CHAPTER 484—S. F. No. 1522

An act relating to rendering plants and persons engaged in the business of disposing of animals which have died or have been killed on account of disease, and authorizing the secretary and executive officer of the state live stock sanitary board to

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1945, Section 616.17, is amended to read :

616.17. Disposition of carcasses. Subdivision 1. Every person owning or having in charge any domestic animal that has died or been killed on account of disease shall immediately bury the carcass thereof at least three feet deep in the ground, or cause the same to be consumed by fire; provided, however, that the live stock sanitary board, through its secretary and executive officer, may issue a permit to owners of rendering plants, located within the boundaries of Minnesota, provided such rendering plants are operated and conducted as required by law, to remove carcasses of domestic animals and fowl that have died or have been killed on account of disease, over the public highways to their plants for rendering purposes in accordance with the rules and regulations adopted by the live stock sanitary board relative to transportation, rendering, and all other provisions deemed by that board to be necessary to prevent the spread of disease; and to owners of rendering plants located in any adjacent state with which a reciprocal agreement is in effect, as provided in subdivision 2 of this act. No person shall sell or offer to sell, or give away such carcass when the animal died or was killed on account of disease, nor convey the same along any public road or upon any land not his own; unless in accordance with a special permit, as hereinbefore provided; nor shall any person negligently or wilfully permit diseased animals owned or controlled by him to escape his control or to run at large. Every violation of any provision of this section shall be a misdemeanor.

Subd. 2 The secretary and executive officer of the live stock sanitary board is hereby authorized to enter into reciprocal agreements in behalf of this state with any one or more of the states adjacent to this state, providing for permits to be issued to rendering plants located in either state to transport carcasses to their plants over the public highways of this state and the reciprocating state.

Approved April 18, 1949.
