CHAPTER 736—H. F. No. 1379

[Not Coded]

An act creating a commission to study the laws and court organization of Minnesota relating to juvenile courts, and to domestic relations including divorce, separate maintenance, annulment of marriage, adoption, desertion and non-support, and appropriating money therefor.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Section 1. Creation. A Commission is hereby created for the purpose of studying the laws of Minnesota, together with the court organization and procedure thereunder, relating to juvenile courts, and to domestic relations including divorce, separate maintenance, annulment of marriage, adoption, desertion and non-support.

Sec. 2. Appointment; without compensation; vacancies. The Commission shall be appointed by the Governor, of such number as he shall deem expedient. It shall serve without compensation and include representation from the State Legislature, and leaders in the legal, judicial and social welfare fields. Appointments to such Commission shall be made upon the passage of this act. Vacancies occurring or existing in the membership of the Commission shall be filled by the appointing power.

Sec. 3. Term. The Commission is authorized to act from the time its members are appointed until the commencement of the next regular session of the State Legislature and shall make and file a report of its findings and recommendations to the Governor not later than the fifteenth day after opening of the next regular Legislative session.

Sec. 4. Meetings; take testimony; officers. The Commission shall have the authority and power to hold meetings at such times and places as it may designate for the purpose of taking evidence and testimony necessary or helpful in effectuating the purposes of the act. The Commission shall select a chairman, vice-chairman, and such other officers from its membership as it may deem necessary.

Sec. 5. Expenses; employees. Members of the Commission, while serving without pay, shall be allowed and paid their actual traveling and other expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of their duties. The Commission may employ expert clerical and professional aid and assistance; and may purchase stationery and other supplies; and do all things reasonably necessary and convenient in carrying out the purposes of this act.

Sec. 6. Appropriation. There is hereby appropriated out of any monies in the State Treasury, not otherwise appropriated, $500.00, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay expenses incurred by the Commission. For the payment of such expenses the Commission shall draw its warrants upon the State Treasurer, which warrants shall be signed by the chairman and at least two other members of the Commission and the State Auditor shall then approve and the State Treasurer pay such warrants as and when presented. A general summary or statement of expenses incurred by the Commission and paid shall be included with the Commission's report.
