

CHAPTER 107—H. F. 447

[Not Coded]

An act relating to the issuance and payment of certificates of indebtedness for the general fund for certain purposes in certain cities of the fourth class, having a population in excess of 2,000 and an assessed valuation of real and personal property in excess of $2,000,000, which consists of 50 per cent iron ore.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Certificates of indebtedness issued. The governing body of any city of the fourth class, however organized, which has a population in excess of 2,000 and an assessed valuation of real and personal property in excess of $2,000,000, and which valuation consists of 50 per cent iron ore, may issue certificates of indebtedness without advertising their sale in an amount not exceeding $10,000 in 1951 on the general fund, with interest thereon not to exceed the rate of six per cent payable at the rate of $1,000 and interest each year, starting with 1952, without regard to the provisions of any charter or any law applicable to the issuance and payment of certificates of indebtedness, providing the money raised by said certificates is used by the city in cooperation with the state highway department in constructing, resurfacing or repairing streets in the city.

Sec. 2. Payment. Such certificates of indebtedness shall be paid annually within the limitations of Minnesota Statutes 1949, Section 275.11.

Approved March 22, 1951.

CHAPTER 108—H. F. No. 457

An act relating to the powers of the annual school meeting; amending Minnesota Statutes 1949, Section 124.09, Subdivision 3.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1949, Section 124.09, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

124.09 Subd. 3. Bonds. The annual meeting or election shall have power to authorize the issuance of bonds as provided by Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 475.

Approved March 22, 1951.

CHAPTER 109—H. F. No. 561

An act relating to places for holding elections; amending Minnesota Statutes 1949, Section 205.25.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1949, Section 205.25, is amended to read:

205.25. Polling places designated. The council of every municipality shall, by ordinance or resolution, and any town may, by vote, designate the place of holding the election in each district; otherwise the election shall be held as near as may be at the place where the preceding election was held, subject to change before the opening of the polls as provided by law. In villages and cities of the third or fourth class now, or hereafter having two or more districts, the council of such municipality may, by ordinance or resolution, provide for the holding of all elections in such village or city in some building centrally located therein and the voters of the village or city may vote at such place so designated, irrespective of whether the voting place is actually located in their district or not. At such place so designated there shall be provided separate statutory voting facilities for each district, and the voting shall otherwise be conducted in the same manner as though the voting places were located in the respective districts.

Approved March 22, 1951.
