CHAPTER 282—H. F. No. 1357

An act relating to public terminal warehouses; amending Minnesota Statutes 1949, Section 233.08.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1949, Section 233.08, is amended to read:

233.08 Licenses. No public terminal warehouse shall be operated or receive grain for storage, either to be mixed with the grain of other parties of like grade, or in separate bins, until the owners or parties in charge and operating such warehouse shall first obtain a license from the commission authorizing such warehouseman to operate such warehouse under the provisions of this chapter. All licenses issued or renewed annually shall expire at midnight on the 30th day of June next following the date of issuance or renewal. Before any such license shall be issued, written application under oath shall be made to the commission for license specifying the kind of warehouse, the nature of its construction, its capacity and location, the name of the firm or corporation operating the same and each member of the firm or officer of the corporation and such other facts as the commission may require shall be contained in such application. The application shall be acted upon with reasonable dispatch by the commission; and, if no reason exists for refusing the same, such license may be issued upon the payment of the fee of $25 for each elevator. Such application shall be granted only upon the warehouseman furnishing to the commission a bond to the State of Minnesota, to be approved by the commission, in a penal sum to be fixed by the commission but not less than $50,000 for each warehouse, which shall be conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties as such warehouseman and full compliance with all the laws of the state and rules of the commission relative to the operation of public terminal warehouses and for the delivery to parties storing grain in such warehouses under the terms of this chapter of the grain or an equal amount of the same kind and grade so stored or the payment therefor of the value of such grain in case of failure to make such delivery. Such license may be revoked by the commission for violation of the law or any rule or regulation prescribed by the commission, but shall only be revoked upon a written notice or complaint specifying the charges and after a hearing had before the commission. A license may be refused to any warehouseman whose license has been revoked within the preceding year. All moneys collected for license fees shall be deposited with the state treasurer and credited to the grain inspection fund. If such warehouseman applies for a license for more than one warehouse in the same county, but one bond need be furnished but the same shall in all cases be in proportion to the capacity of such warehouses.

Approved April 6, 1951.
