

never exceed the amount allowed by law for legal advertising. Whenever in any city no newspaper is published, any paper printed in the English language, and published in the county in which such city is situated, may be designated as the official paper; provided that if each and all of said proposals shall fix a price in excess of the maximum as herein provided, or if no proposal shall be received, then in either event the city council may adopt such other method for publication of ordinances, proceedings and other matters as it may determine, the compensation in no event to exceed the amount herein provided; provided further, that in any city in which three or more daily papers are printed and published in the English language, the city council may, in the first instance, direct that proposals shall be received for the publication, in a daily paper published in the English language, or ordinances and proceedings and other public notices required by law to be published in the official paper of the city; and in such case the city council shall not consider any proposals for the publication of the same in any weekly paper unless no proposal to publish the same in a daily paper, as provided herein, shall have been received.

Approved April 7, 1951.

CHAPTER 296—S. F. No. 593

[Not Coded]

An act relating to the compensation of city treasurers in certain cities of the third class.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Treasurer's salary. The city council or other governing body of any city of the third class situated in any county which is adjacent or contiguous to a city of the first class in another county may, by a majority vote of all its members, fix a rate of compensation to be paid the city treasurer which shall be paid in addition to compensation now authorized by any home rule charter, in order to provide any adjustment needed because of increased costs of living.

Approved April 7, 1951.