

tion tax and any additional fees for delayed registration he has collected he shall deposit each day in an approved state depository to the credit of the state through the state treasurer. The registrar, in the order of appointment of each deputy hereunder, shall designate the amount to be paid annually to each such deputy as compensation for his services, the services of his employees and the expense of the bureau maintenance, which amount shall be fixed and determined or have the approval of the executive council endorsed thereon. If the amount designated to be paid annually to such deputy as compensation for his services, the services of his employees, and expense of the bureau maintenance is less than the total of the filing fees he collects, the amount so provided for shall be paid semi-monthly by the registrar from the amount of the filing fees collected and deposited by such deputy, as herein provided with respect to registration taxes he collects; but the amount so paid shall not in any case exceed the total amount of filing fees so collected and remitted. The amount received by the registrar under the provisions hereof shall be paid by him into the state treasury daily, weekly, or at such other intervals as may be determined by the order of the executive council. Supplies, accounting machines and office space required to enable the registrar to properly carry out the duties imposed upon him by the provisions of this chapter may be rented or purchased, as provided by existing law. The provisions of this section shall not be held or construed to modify, limit, or restrict any of the provisions of Laws 1925, Chapter 426.
