

It shall not be necessary to affix stamps to individual bottles of fermented malt liquor or still wine, but no bottle containing the same shall be removed from containers for sale or consumption unless the original container in which the same was packed shall have affixed thereto stamps of proper denominations. Such stamps shall be affixed by the manufacturer, wholesaler, brewer, or other person, to each barrel, keg, case, or other container of such fermented malt liquor or still wine before any sale, except that as to wines containing less than 25 per cent of alcohol by weight such stamps may be affixed at any time prior to sale to the consumer. The certification labels provided for by section 340.461 may be affixed to the containers of wines instead of to each individual bottle therein. The number of certification labels or their denomination, as the liquor control commissioner may prescribe, that may be affixed hereunder to any container of wine shall be equivalent to the number of bottles therein. The liquor control commissioner shall promulgate suitable rules and regulations to carry out the purpose of this act.
