[177.121] Sec. 7. Less wages; employment, license. The industrial commission shall make rules and regulations whereby any woman, or minor earner, apprentice or handicapped person unable to earn the living wage theretofore determined upon, shall be granted a license to work for a wage which shall be commensurate with his or her ability. Each license so granted shall establish a wage for the licensee, and no licensee shall be employed at a wage less than the rate so established.

[177.122] Sec. 8. Certiorari. Decisions and orders of the commission made under the provisions of this section shall be subject to review by certiorari to the district court of Ramsey County or to the district court of any county wherein the complaining party resides. Any person affected by the decision or order of the commission may appeal therefrom within 60 days from the date of the entry of the order in the docket of the commission.

Sec. 9. This act shall take effect July 1, 1951.

Approved April 18, 1951.

CHAPTER 454—S. F. No. 147

An act relating to workmen's compensation, defining and regulating occupational diseases; amending Minnesota Statutes 1949, Section 176.664.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1949, Section 176.664, is amended to read as follows:

176.664. Notice, time limit for service. In all cases except silicosis or asbestosis unless the employer shall have actual notice of the injury any claim for occupational disease is barred unless within 90 days after disablement of an em- ployee as defined in section 176.66, subdivision 1, notice thereof in accordance with section 176.16 shall have been given to the employer, and unless the claim is filed with the commission with the period specified in section 176.18, except that in case of silicosis or asbestosis the claim may be filed with the commission within three years after the date of employee's last exposure or within three years of the date of the last payment of compensation by the employer, or his default in payment. If disablement occurs within the last 90 days allowed by this section for filing claim with the commission, then the employee or his dependents shall be allowed a period of 90 days from the happening of such disablement to comply with the provisions of this section.

Compensation is not payable for partial disability from silicosis or asbestosis, except where such partial disability follows a compensable period of total disability.

Approved April 18, 1951.
