Sec. 5.   Municipal judge, salary.   The salary of the municipal judge shall be such sum as the village council may designate, which salary shall not be diminished during his term, except as hereinafter provided, and which shall be payable in equal monthly installments. The municipal judge shall have thirty days' vacation each year on full pay and it shall be taken at such time or times as he may arrange with the special municipal judge. The salary of the special municipal judge shall be ten dollars ($10.00) per day for each day necessarily spent in presiding as such special judge in said court, and when he spends less than a day, he shall be paid only in proportion to the time so spent; but for services in any one day he shall be allowed for at least one-half of a day's salary, though the time necessarily spent may have been less than one-half of a day, which salary of the special judge shall be payable monthly, upon statement to be by him filed with the village recorder. Where the special judge presides in said court and is allowed and paid for the time spent the amount so allowed shall be deducted from the salary of the municipal judge as hereinafter named, except where the special municipal judge presides along with the municipal judge, at his request, or any time when the said municipal judge is on his vacation or is necessarily engaged in the trial of other cases in said court, or is attending other official duties of his said office, or where the said municipal judge is disqualified by law from presiding in such matter, or is interested, biased or prejudiced, or is sick, disabled or incapacitated from attending to the duties of his office.

In the absence or disability of the municipal judge and special municipal judge of said court, the president of the village council may designate a practicing attorney to sit in place of such municipal judge from day to day.
