CHAPTER 631—S. F. No. 1097

An act relating to vital statistics, providing for preparation and filing of new certificates of birth by the state registrar in cases where court findings are made as to facts of paternity or legitimacy, amending Minnesota Statutes 1949, Section 144.171.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1949, Section 144.171, is amended to read:

144.171. Delayed certificate. Subdivision 1. Dispute. A birth certificate of a person born in this state or a death certificate of a person who died in this state may be filed or amended after the time herein prescribed upon submitting such proof as shall be required by the board, but the board shall not make a determination of paternity when disputed on a birth record.

Subd. 2. Court findings. When a court of competent jurisdiction shall make findings as to the facts of birth of a person whose birth certificate is incomplete, inaccurate or false, the state registrar upon receipt of a certified copy of such findings shall prepare and file a new certificate setting forth the true information. When such findings relate to the fact of legitimacy, said findings shall be deemed to be the original from thenceforth, and the original filed in the first instance shall be preserved by the state registrar as in cases hereinafter provided.

Approved April 20, 1951.
