

CHAPTER 633—S. F. No. 1029

[Not Coded]

An act to provide for the retirement and compensation upon retirement of judges of the municipal court of any city of the first class, having a population of less than 200,000.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Duluth; retirement of municipal judge. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in any city of the first class, having a population of less than 200,000, any judge of the municipal court therein, who has served continuously for 30 years and is over 70 years of age, may retire from further service as such judge and shall receive compensation, upon his retirement, for life in the manner provided in this act.

Sec. 2. Procedure. Subdivision 1. When any such judge desires to retire, he shall notify in writing the city council or city commission or other governing body of such city, that he is desirous of retiring, that he has served as a judge of the municipal court of the city for 30 years or more and is over 70 years of age.

Subd. 2. Upon receipt of such a communication the governing body shall fix as compensation for the retiring judge, the sum of $1200 per year, which shall be paid in 12 monthly installments, beginning at the date of his retirement.

Approved April 20, 1951.
