

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. The following amendment to the Constitution of the State of Minnesota, Article VII, Section 1, is hereby proposed to the people of the state for their approval or rejection, the deleted matter being crossed out and the added matter being underlined, which section when amended shall read as follows:

Section 1. Every person of the age of 21 years or upwards who is a citizen of the United States and who has resided in this State six months next preceding any election shall be entitled to vote at such election in the election district of which he at the time has been a resident for 30 days for all officers elective by the people.

Sec. 2. This proposed amendment shall be submitted to the voters of this state for their approval or rejection at the general election for the year 1952, in a manner provided by law. Ballots used at the election on the proposed amendment shall have printed thereon: "Shall the Constitution, Article VII, Section 1, relating to who may vote, be amended so as to provide for changes in the wording thereof in order to clarify the meaning, without materially changing the actual meaning thereof?"

Approved April 23, 1951.

CHAPTER 724—S. F. No. 730

[Not Coded]

An act proposing an amendment of Section 7 of Article VI of the Constitution of the State of Minnesota, pertaining to the probate court and the jurisdiction thereof.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1.—An amendment to Section 7 of Article VI of the Constitution of the State of Minnesota, to read as herein after provided, is hereby proposed to the people of the state for their approval or rejection. The proposed amendment is as follows, and, if adopted, said Section 7 will read as follows:

Sec. 7. There shall be established in each organized county in the State a probate court, which shall be a court of record, and be held at such time and place as may be prescribed by law. It shall be held by one judge, whose qualifications may be established by law and who shall be elected by the voters of the county for the term of four years. He shall be a resident of such county at the time of his election, and reside therein during his continuance in office; and his compensation shall be provided by law. He may appoint his own clerk where none has been elected; but the legislature may authorize the election, by the electors of any county, of one clerk or register of probate for such county, whose powers, duties, term of office and compensation shall be prescribed by law. A probate court shall have jurisdiction over the person and estate, either or both, of persons under guardianship; over estates of deceased persons; and such further jurisdiction as the legislature may from time to time establish by a two-thirds vote.

Sec. 2. This proposed amendment shall be submitted to the people of this state for their approval or rejection at the general election for the year 1952 in the manner provided by law for the submission of amendments to the Constitution, and the votes thereon shall be counted, canvassed, and the result thereof proclaimed as provided by law. The ballots used at such election shall have printed thereon the following:

"Shall Section 7 of Article VI of the Constitution of the State of Minnesota be amended by providing that the last sentence thereof shall read as follows:

A probate court shall have jurisdiction over the person and estate, either or both, of persons under guardianship; over estates of deceased persons; and such further jurisdiction as the legislature may from time to time establish by a two-thirds vote.

Yes

No"

Approved April 23, 1951.