CHAPTER 3—S. F. No. 9

[Not Coded]

An act relating to the nomination and election of the judges of the municipal court in cities of the first class now or hereafter having a population of more than 500,000 inhabitants.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minneapolis, municipal court; election of judges. In any municipal court of this state in any city of the first class now or hereafter having a population of more than 500,000 inhabitants, when two or more judges of said municipal court are to be nominated at a primary city election or elected at a general city election, the notice of election shall state the name of each judge whose successor is to be nominated or elected. Each judge of said municipal court holds a separate non-partisan office. The official ballot shall contain the names of all candidates for each such office, shall state the number of judges to be elected and the number of candidates for whom an elector may vote, and shall designate each candidacy as "For the office of Judge of the Municipal Court of ..... to which..... was

Name of Municipality

Name of Judge

elected for the regular term", or "For the office of Judge of the Municipal Court of ..... to which
 Name of Municipality
 ..... was appointed", as the case may be.
 Name of Judge

The ballots for both the primary and general city elections shall show in the spaces for the purpose the name of the municipality and the name of the judge whose successor is to be elected at the general city election. If any judge of such court is a candidate to succeed himself, the word "incumbent" shall be printed after his name where it appears among the names of the candidates for the office. If voting machines are used and the statements above cannot be inserted because of length, the designation shall be "Successor to .....
 Name of Judge
 (elected)", or "Successor to ..... (appointed)",
 Name of Judge
 as the case may be.

Sec. 2. Affidavit of candidacy. Any eligible person desirous of having his name placed upon the primary ballot as a candidate for judge of such municipal court affected hereby shall also state in his affidavit of candidacy the office of the particular judge for which he is a candidate. The filing of this affidavit of candidacy with the city clerk of such municipality and a compliance with all other requirements constitutes such person a candidate for that office, and for that office only.

Sec. 3. Additional. The provisions of this bill shall be in addition to the provisions of any other act affecting the judges of such municipal courts affected hereby and the election thereof.

Approved February 4, 1953.
