CHAPTER 353—S. F. No. 1372

An act relating to the Youth Conservation Commission; amending Minnesota Statutes 1949, Section 260.125, Subdivision 19, and Section 249.03.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1949, Section 260.125, Subdivision 19, is amended to read:

Subd. 19. Methods of control. When a person has been committed to the commission it may (a) place him on probation under such supervision and conditions as it believes conducive to law-abiding conduct, and incur and pay such obligations as may be necessary for his maintenance; (b) if he has been committed to the commission upon conviction of a felony or gross misdemeanor, order his confinement to such reformatory, state prison, jail, or other place of confinement to which he might have been sentenced by the court in which he was convicted except for this section. Such reformatories, state prisons, jails or other places of confinement are hereby required to accept such persons in like manner as though they had been committed by such court; (c) if he has been committed to the Commission by a juvenile court upon a finding of his delinquency, order his commitment to the State Training School for Boys or the Minnesota Home School for Girls and such schools shall accept such persons so committed to them or to private schools or institutions established by law or incorporated under the laws of this state that may care for delinquent children; (d) order his release on parole from confinement under such supervision and conditions as it believes conducive to law-abiding conduct; (e) order reconfinement or renewed parole as often as the commission believes to be desirable; (f) revoke or modify any order, except an order of discharge, as often as the commission believes to be desirable; (g) discharge him from its control when it is satisfied that such discharge is consistent with the protection of the public.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1949, Section 249.03, is amended to read:

249.03 Youth conservation commission, duties. It shall be the duty of the Youth Conservation Commission to receive, clothe, maintain, and instruct, at the expense of the state, all infants duly committed, as herein provided, to the training school and keep them in their custody until their arrival at the age of 21 years unless sooner discharged, apprenticed, paroled, placed on probation, or transferred; and the Youth Conservation Commission may in its discretion place any of these children, until their arrival at 18 years of age, in suitable homes, or bind them out as apprentices to such persons at such places, and to learn such trades or employment as in its judgment will be most conducive to their reformation and amendment and tend to the future benefit and advantage of the infants. When a similar separate institution for girls shall be established and opened by the state, girls between the ages aforesaid may be committed to and detained therein in like manner and upon the same conditions as herein provided. The Youth Conservation Commission may discharge any child so committed, or may recall to the school at any time any child placed out, apprenticed, paroled, placed on probation, or transferred; and, upon such recall, may resume the care and control thereof. The discharge of a child by the Youth Conservation Commission shall be a complete release from all penalties and disabilities created by reason of the commitment or sentence.

Approved April 14, 1953.
