CHAPTER 760—H. F. No. 915

An act proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Minnesota, Article X, Section 3, relating to the liability of stockholders in certain corporations.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. An amendment to Section 3 of Article X of the Constitution of the State of Minnesota, to read as hereinafter provided, is hereby proposed to the people of the state for their approval or rejection. The proposed amendment is as follows, and, if adopted, said Section 3 will read as follows:

Sec. 3. The legislature shall have power from time to time to provide for, limit and otherwise regulate the liability of stockholders or members of corporations and co-operative corporations or associations, however organized.

Sec. 2. Such proposed amendment shall be submitted to the people for their approval or rejection at the general election for the year 1954 and the qualified electors of the state, in their respective districts, may at such election vote for or against such proposed amendment by ballot, and the returns thereof shall be made and certified within the time, such vote canvassed, and the result thereof declared in the manner provided by law with reference to the election of state officers, and if it shall appear thereon that a majority of all electors voting in such election shall have voted for and ratified said amendment, as provided in the next section hereof, then the governor shall make proclamation thereof, and such amendment so ratified shall take effect and be in force as a part of the constitution.

Sec. 3. Ballots used at said election, and said proposed amendment, shall have printed thereon: "Amendment of Section 3, of Article X of the Constitution, empowering the legislature to limit and otherwise regulate the liability of stockholders of state banks. Yes..... No....." Each elector voting upon such proposed amendment shall place a cross mark, thus, "X", in a space to be left on the ballot opposite the words "Yes" and "No", according as he may wish to vote for or against said amendment, and his vote shall be counted in accordance with the expressed will of such elector, as provided by the election laws of this state.

Approved March 27, 1953.
