

manner as claims of other public employees under the workmen's compensation law are heard and determined.

Sec. 3. [251.053] Officers admitted to sanatorium. If upon the evidence mentioned in the preceding section, the industrial commission finds that such police officer is suffering from tuberculosis contracted by contact with persons suffering from tuberculosis while said police officer was working within the scope of his employment, it shall order the head of the police department in which said police officer is engaged, to apply for the admission of the said police officer to the state sanatorium for consumptives or some county tuberculosis sanatorium. There shall be paid to the institution where such employee may be received the same fee for the maintenance and care of such persons as is received by such institution for the maintenance and care of a nonresident patient, and such fees shall be paid by the state, county, city or village in whose employment the said police officer was hired and working at the time said police officer contracted the tuberculosis. Such police officer shall receive full hospital care and medical care without cost for the duration of the infection of tuberculosis or any recurrence thereof or any disability resulting therefrom. Further, the industrial commission shall order payment to such police officer by the state, county, city, or village concerned, of the compensation provided for under the general provisions of the workmen's compensation law, including benefits to dependents as defined by the workmen's compensation law, if said police officer dies from the effects of the disease of tuberculosis and if the tuberculosis was the primary infection and the authentic cause of death.
