

agencies insofar as they are concerned in the regulation of building construction, alteration, and repair, and (4) simplifying procedure in securing state approval of building plans when required. It shall also study and make its recommendations upon proposals for the promulgation of Part I of the proposed state building code as a state-wide regulation, but any recommended system for its enforcement shall be financially self-sustaining to the greatest practicable extent and shall place maximum reliance upon local government.

Sec. 3. Compensation, expenses. No member of the code commission shall receive any compensation for the performance of duties as a member of the commission, but members may be reimbursed for actual expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of their duties.

Sec. 4. Cooperation. Every state department or agency having any responsibility by law in the field of building regulations and every political subdivision and its officers and employees shall cooperate with the building code commission in the discharge of its duties and shall furnish it with available records, reports, and other pertinent information upon request.

Sec. 5. Report. The commission shall make its report to the legislature not later than December 15, 1956.

Sec. 6. Appropriation. There is hereby appropriated out of any monies in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated the sum of $2,500, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to pay expenses incurred by the code commission. The payment of such expenses shall be approved on behalf of the code commission by the chairman and at least two other members of the commission and then shall be made in the manner provided by law. A general statement of expenses of the code commission shall be included with its report.

Approved April 23, 1955.

CHAPTER 762—S. F. No. 399

An act relating to marriage licenses, and application therefor; amending Minnesota Statutes 1953, Section 517.08.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1953, Section 517.08, is amended to read:

517.08 Application for license. Application for a marriage license shall be made at least five days before a license shall be issued. Such application shall be made upon a form contained in a book provided for the purpose and shall contain the full names of the parties, their post office addresses and county and state of residence, and their full ages. The clerk shall examine upon oath the party applying for license relative to the legality of such contemplated marriage and, if at the expiration of this five-day period, he is satisfied that there is no legal impediment thereto, he shall issue such license, containing the full names of the parties and county and state of residence, with the district court seal attached, and make a record of the date of issuance thereof, which license shall be valid for a period of six months. In case of emergency or extraordinary circumstances, the judge of the pro-
