CHAPTER 22—H. F. No. 96

[Not Coded]

An act relating to the adoption of an ordinance pertaining to legislative code and administrative code in cities of the first class now or hereafter having a population of not less than 250,000 and not more than 450,000, and providing an effective date therefor; amending Laws 1955, Chapter 67, Section 1.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Laws 1955, Chapter 67, Section 1, is amended to read:

Section 1. St. Paul, code revision of ordinances. In any city of the first class in the State of Minnesota now or hereafter having a population of not less than 250,000 and not more than 450,000, which city operates under a charter which authorizes the city council to make a complete and thorough revision of all the ordinances of the city except franchise ordinances and omit from such revision all appropriation and all other ordinances not then in effect and adopt such revision as a single ordinance and publish the same as separate books to be known as the Legislative Code and Administrative Code, upon the adoption by the city council of such Legislative Code or Administrative Code as a single ordinance, such ordinance shall become operative upon its passage, without further publication in an official newspaper, notwithstanding any other charter provision requiring that every ordinance shall be published in full in the official newspaper before it becomes operative.
