

ministration is the actual cost thereof to the department of administration as determined by the commissioner of administration.

(d) The state highway department's, the motor vehicle division's, and the petroleum tax division's attributable amount of the cost of operating the state civil service is the percentage of the amount expended for salaries, supplies and expense of the department, which the average number of employees of the department of highways, motor vehicle division, and petroleum tax division during the year is of the average number of employees employed by the state during the year.

(e) The state highway department's, the motor vehicle division's, and the petroleum tax division's attributable amount of the cost of operating the office of the public examiner is the amount expended by the office for salaries, supplies, and expense in connection with auditing the department of highways, the motor vehicle division, and the petroleum tax division.

(f) When the commissioner of administration has determined the total attributable amount of the cost of the offices and departments enumerated in this subdivision, he shall certify the amount so determined to the state auditor. The several amounts so certified by the commissioner of administration are hereby appropriated from the trunk highway fund to the general revenue fund in the state treasury as a reimbursement of moneys expended from the general revenue fund by the several state officers and departments enumerated in this subdivision for salaries, supplies and expense expended for services, supplies and expense attributable to highway, motor vehicle and petroleum tax matters. Upon receipt of the certification of the commissioner of administration, the state auditor shall transfer from the trunk highway fund to the general revenue fund in the state treasury the amount certified by the commissioner of administration, and the state auditor is authorized and directed to make the appropriate entries in the records of the respective funds. The commissioner of administration shall transmit a duplicate original of the certification to the state treasurer who is authorized and directed to make the appropriate entries in his records.

Approved March 15, 1957.
