CHAPTER 228—H. F. No. 225

An act relating to game and fish; authorizing the commissioner of conservation to open state game refuges, including state parks, for the taking of wild animals doing damage to forest crops or when the commissioner has determined that there is a harvestable surplus of wild animals therein; amending Minnesota Statutes 1953, Section 99.26, Subdivision 2.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1953, Section 99.26, Subdivision 2, is hereby amended to read:

Subd. 2. Whenever the commissioner shall find that any species of protected wild animal on any refuge, including state parks, has attained an abundance in excess of the capacity of such refuge to support it or causing substantial damage to agricultural or forest crops in the vicinity, or is threatening the well-being and continued production of that species or of other protected wild animals, or when he has determined that there is a harvestable surplus of wild animals, he may include such refuge or any part thereof in the open territory prescribed for the taking of such species, during the succeeding regular open season, and may prescribe any reasonable regulations for the hunting or trapping thereof.
