Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1953, Section 326.38, is amended to read:

326.38 Local regulations. Any city or village having a system of waterworks or sewerage, or any town in which reside over 6,000 people exclusive of any villages located therein, may, by ordinance, adopt local regulations providing for plumbing permits, bonds, approval of plans, and inspections of plumbing, which regulations are not in conflict with the plumbing standards on the same subject prescribed by the state board of health. No city or village or such town shall prohibit plumbers licensed by the state board of health from engaging in or working at the business, except cities and villages which, prior to April 21, 1933, by ordinance required the licensing of plumbers. Any city or village by ordinance may prescribe regulations, reasonable standards, and inspections and grant permits to any person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of installing water softeners, who is not licensed as a master plumber or journeyman plumber by the state board of health, to connect water softening and water filtering equipment to private residence water distribution systems: where provision has been previously made therefor and openings left for that purpose or by use of cold water connections to a domestic water heater; where it is not necessary to rearrange, make any extension or alteration of, or addition to any pipe, fixture or plumbing connected with the water system except to connect the water softener, and provided the connections so made comply with minimum standards prescribed by the state board of health.

Approved April 29, 1957.

CHAPTER 922—H. F. No. 1468
[Not Coded]

An act proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Minnesota, Article IV, Section 9, pertaining to the Legislature.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. An amendment to the Constitution of the State of Minnesota, Article IV, Sec. 9, is proposed to the people of the state for their approval or rejection, which section when amended shall read as follows:

Sec. 9. No senator or representative shall during the term for which he is elected, hold any nonelective office under the authority of the State of Minnesota except that of Notary Public or of the United States except that of postmaster. No senator or representative shall be disqualified for election to any elective office, but any senator or representative who is elected to any elective office under the authority of the state or the United States, who shall qualify for the office to which elected, shall automatically terminate his term of office as senator or representative and create a vacancy therein, provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall preclude any senator or representative from serving as attorney for any school district or political subdivision of the state except that he shall not serve as a county attorney.

Sec. 2. The proposed amendment shall be submitted to the people of the state for their approval or rejection at the general election for the year 1958 in the manner provided by law for the submission of amendments to the constitution. The votes thereon shall be counted, canvassed, and the results proclaimed as provided by law. The ballots used at the election shall have printed thereon the following:

"Shall Article IV, Sec. 9 of the Constitution of the State of Minnesota be amended so as to permit a senator or representative to hold certain elective and nonelective offices under authority of the State of Minnesota or the United States?

Yes................
No................"

Approved April 29, 1957.
