CHAPTER 165—S. F. No. 349

An act relating to the payment of tuition for pupils attending elementary or secondary schools in adjoining states; amending Minnesota Statutes 1957, Section 132.03.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1957, Section 132.03, is amended to read:

132.03 Attendance; secondary school in adjoining state.

Subdivision 1. Any person under 21 years of age residing in any school district of this state not maintaining a secondary school who has successfully completed the elementary school may, with the consent of the school board of such district, attend any secondary school of a district in an adjoining state willing to admit him, which secondary school is nearer to his place of residence than any duly established secondary school in Minnesota, the distances being measured by the usual traveled routes. Any tuition charged by the district so attended shall be paid to the district attended by the county in which the person resides. This tuition shall not be more than (a) such district charges non-resident pupils of that state, (b) the average maintenance cost exclusive of transportation per pupil unit in average daily attendance in the school attended, nor (c) the tuition rate provided for in Minnesota Statutes, Section 128.082, Subdivision 6. The method of certifying tuition for such pupils, the payment by the county, and the levying of taxes for such tuition shall be the same as is provided by Minnesota Statutes, Section 128.088 for non-resident pupils attending Minnesota secondary schools.

Any pupil attending the secondary school in an adjoining state for whom tuition is paid from county funds is entitled to transportation services in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, Section 128.07, Subdivision 5.

Subd. 2. A school board in a district maintaining a secondary school may by a majority vote provide for the instruction of any resident pupil in a school district in an adjoining state nearer to his place of residence than the school of his resident district, the distances being measured by the usual traveled routes. Any charge for tuition by the district so attended or for transportation shall be paid by the pupil's resident district provided that such pupil shall continue to be a pupil of the district of his residence for the payment of apportionment and other state aids.

Approved April 3, 1959.
