CHAPTER 576—H. F. No. 828

[Coded in Part]

An act relating to county welfare boards; changing the name of the executive secretary; amending Minnesota Statutes 1957, Section 393.04.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1957, Section 393.04, is amended to read:

393.04 Organization. The county welfare board shall, at its first meeting, and thereafter at its annual meeting on the first Thursday after the first Monday in July each year meet and organize by electing a chairman, a vice-chairman, and a secretary, except as provided in section 393.01, subdivision 3, each of whom shall perform the customary duties of his office. The board shall appoint a director and such assistants and clerical help as it may deem necessary to perform the work of the board. The appointment of the director shall be made in accordance with rules and regulations to be adopted by the commissioner of public welfare and shall be chosen upon the basis of his experience, training, and general qualifications for the work. His salary shall be fixed by the county welfare board, except the salary of the director of the county welfare board appointed pursuant to section 393.01, subdivision 4, which salary shall be approved by the board of county commissioners of any such county and the city council of any city of the first class located within such county, and the county welfare board shall fix the salary of such other employees as it may hire.

The welfare board shall require its director and such other of its employees as it may determine, to execute and file with it a bond conditioned as are other official bonds, to the state, with corporate sureties to be approved by it, in such amount as it may fix, not less than $1,000; and the premium thereon shall be paid by the board.

Sec. 2. [482.22] Change of name, director of county welfare board. Wherever the term "executive secretary" now appears in the statutes in relation to county welfare boards, the revisor of statutes shall substitute the term "director."

Approved April 24, 1959.

CHAPTER 577—S. F. No. 1499

[Not Coded]

An act defining street lighting districts, authorizing the City of Minneapolis by ordinance to define minimum street lighting, establish street lighting districts, and provide for the operation and maintenance of systems of street lighting poles and other lighting facilities and electric current, and to assess the costs thereof against properties benefited by such improvement.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Definition. The governing body of the City of Minneapolis shall define and establish by ordinance minimum standards of street lighting in any area or areas within the city, and the city's operation and maintenance costs of such lighting shall be paid from city general tax funds.

A "Street Lighting District" shall mean an area containing a street or parts of streets upon which there already is or shall be constructed, installed, maintained and operated a uniform system of street lighting poles, equipment and facilities by which lighting in excess of minimum street lighting is provided, the city's costs for which shall be paid by the benefited property owners.

Sec. 2. Street lighting district, establishment of. The governing body of the City of Minneapolis is authorized to establish street lighting districts within the city, and to levy and assess annually against benefited property in any street lighting district all of the city's maintenance and operating costs for the current year, including the cost of electric current. The assessment for electric current shall be only for the amount in excess of the cost of minimum street lighting. Such
