An act relating to maximum age of firemen entering into fire department employment in cities of the first class.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. [418.20]. Firemen, cities of first class; maximum employment age. In cities of the first class no person may become employed as a fireman in such city's fire department after having attained the age of 35 years, notwithstanding the provisions of the Veterans Preference Law, Minnesota Statutes, Section 197.45, Subdivision 2, and of Laws 1957, Chapter 741.

Sec. 2. This act is in effect from and after its passage.

Approved March 29, 1961.

CHAPTER 186—S. F. No. 338

[Not Coded]

An act relating to eligibility of firemen over the age of 35 years for membership in the Duluth firemen's relief association.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Duluth firemen's relief association, employees. Notwithstanding the provision of Minnesota Statutes, Section 69.28, providing that no fireman who is more than 35 years of age when his application is filed can become a member of the relief association, any member of the fire department in the city of Duluth, in its employ on January 1, 1961, may be eligible to membership in the Duluth Firemen's Relief Association. Such member shall make application therefor within 90 days after the effective date of this act. His application must be acted upon by the association pursuant to the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 69.28, within six months thereafter.

Upon the approval of the application for membership to the relief association, such member shall cease to be a member of any other municipal, state, or public employee
