

the purposes of this section shall be deemed given when mailed to the organization named in the registration statement at the address there stated pursuant to paragraph 3 of section 3, subdivision 1.

Subd. 2. Any charitable organization whose registration statement has been cancelled may bring an action in the district court for reinstatement of the registration. If the court finds that the requested information was not reasonably relevant to the purposes of this act or that there was valid reason or excuse for the failure to furnish the requested information, or that the cancellation was not effected in accordance with the provisions of subdivision 1, it shall order reinstatement of the cancelled registration upon such terms as may be proper under the circumstances.

Sec. 10. [309.59] Construction; powers of attorney general. Sections 1 to 12 shall not be construed to limit or to restrict the exercise of the powers or the performance of the duties of the attorney general which he otherwise is authorized to exercise or perform under any other provision of law.

Sec. 11. [309.60] Reciprocal agreements, other states. The department may enter into reciprocal agreements with a like authority of any other state or states for the purpose of exchanging information made available to the department or to such other like authority.

Sec. 12. [309.61] Severability. If any provision of sections 1 to 12 or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid the invalidity shall not affect other provisions or application of said sections which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of said sections are severable.

Sec. 13. Effective date. This act shall become effective July 1, 1961.

Approved April 13, 1961.

CHAPTER 310—H. F. No. 66

An act relating to salaries of court reporters, amending Minnesota Statutes 1957, Section 486.05, Subdivision 1, as amended.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Changes or additions indicated by italics, deletions by ~~strikeout~~.

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1957, Section 486.05, Subdivision 1, as amended by Laws 1959, Chapter 264, Section 1, is amended to read:

486.05 Salaries. The judge by an order filed with the county auditors ~~annually~~ on or before the first Monday in May, 1959, and ~~on or before the first Monday in January, annually thereafter 1961,~~ shall fix and establish the salary of the court reporter at an amount not exceeding ~~$8,000~~ $8,500 per year, and, in such order, each judge, except those judges in the second and fourth judicial districts, shall apportion the salaries of the reporters in their respective districts among the several counties, and each county shall be required by such order to pay a specified amount thereof in monthly installments, which shall be such proportion of the whole salary as the number of days work actually done by the reporter in the trial of cases in that county during the preceding year population in each county bears to the whole number so performed total population in the district as set forth in the most recent federal census. It is provided, however, that in the event a judge is temporarily transferred to hold court in some county other than in his judicial district then, and in that event, the said county shall pay that part of the monthly salary of the judge's reporter as that part of the month worked by said reporter in said county. In fixing the court reporter's salary the judge shall give due consideration to the general economic conditions then prevailing. Each reporter shall have and maintain his residence in the district in which he is appointed, but if any reporter be appointed in two or more districts he may reside in either or any of them. The reporter, in addition to his salary, shall be paid such sums as he shall accrue as necessary mileage, traveling, and hotel expenses while absent from the city or village in which he resides in the discharge of his official duties, such expenses to be paid by the county for which the same were incurred upon presentation of a verified itemized statement thereof approved by the judge; and the auditor of such county, upon presentation of such approved statement, shall issue his warrant in payment thereof.

All laws now in force relating to the salary of district court reporters inconsistent herewith relating to any and all counties are hereby repealed and superseded.
